

Stayton Picks Leaders For Annual Bean Fete

Committees Will Start Work

STAYTON (Special)—Plans for this year's Santiam Bean Festival were started this week when appointments of chairmen and committees were made by President Richard Duncan. Dates for this year's event have been slated for July 30 and 31, and August 1, 2 and 3.

Under discussion was a different method of choosing a queen of the festival, since last year's contest was made burdensome by many entrants, who were organization-sponsored.

A plan was offered to have the queen selection committee contact the faculties of Stayton, Cascade and Mill City Union High Schools, and St. Boniface High School, at Sublimity to choose girls, two from each of the union high schools and one from the smaller St. Boniface High School.

Seek New Method

Method of selecting contestants was left to the committee. The queen would then be selected from the seven contestants, with the other six to be princesses. Selection of contestants was to be made in each school before school is closed for the year.

Edward J. Bell called attention to the fact that this year marks the 20th anniversary of the Browning Bros. Carnival which had Stayton for its first booking. Also discussed was the need of having a carpenter on hand during the festival, and installation of flags and banners.

Committee appointments included:

Grand Parade—Ivan Cutsforth, chairman; Mrs. Betty Jelaca, Mrs. Anna Benedict, George Harfello, and Mrs. Mildred Purdy.
