The Queen's coronation dance last Saturday night was most successful with a large crowd coming out to see the results of the contesting girls for Queen of the Show this weekend.

At 11:00 p.m. the final tally was made on the ticket sales and President Olin Cross announced Elena Lumley was the winner and crowned her Queen Elena Ist by presenting her with her symbol authority, a beautiful western hat Elena is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Lumley and is a very active member of the Saddle Club. She is a junior at North Salem High School.

Princesses to Queen Elena will

Princesses to Queen Elena will be Judy Kipper, Geraldine Crawford, Marjorie Kaiser, Marlene Tracy, Zoanne Lindas, and Penny Bowers. It is a charming group of girls to rule our show. Chaperone for the girls is Mrs. Pat Livesley.

The dance was in a building donated for the evening by the Sneed Bros. and it is a nice new building large enough to accommodate a crowd, Marlene Tracy did a fine job of decorating. The Epping Lumber Co. donated a truck to transport the piane for us and it was also used as a platform for the orchestra. Our sincere thanks go to all these fine people for helping make our dance so successful.
