

Errol Flynn Not Pulling Many Punches in Writing Memoirs

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer

MEXICO CITY (UP)—A secret bomb for Hollywood is being manufactured around the tortillas and tequila here. Errol Flynn is writing his memoirs—wives, love affairs, foreign intrigue and all.

Flynn is one celluloid idol whose life story has been as swashbuckling and dramatic as the screen. Realizing this could be a gold mine, a publisher has induced Flynn to write about his colorful life, including his adventures on ships, his intrigue in the Spanish

Ex-Nazi Chief On Trial for Role in Purge

MUNICH, Germany (UP)—Former SS Col. Gen. Sepp Dietrich, paroled 18 months ago from a 25-year U.S. war crimes sentence, went on trial before a German court here Monday for his role in the Nazi blood bath purge of 1934.

The veteran Nazi, 65, is accused of assisting in manslaughter in the execution without trial of six high officers of the Nazi Stormtroopers Assn., June 30, 1934. He commanded the SS Elite Guard battalion which provided the firing squad.

The six officers and about 200 others were killed after Hitler, spurred by the Elite Guard and the army, charged that the 4 1/2 million Stormtroopers (SA) were to be led by their boss, Ernst Roehm in a putsch to replace the Nazi regime with a more radical "fourth Reich."

Aunt Is Slain By Farm Boy

WAYNE, W. Va. (AP)—Fifteen-year-old Buddy Claxton told police he heard a noise outside his farm home Sunday night, picked up a rifle and queried "who's there?" There was no answer, he said. He heard a door slam on the family's parked car. He fired.

His aunt, Mrs. Anna Pauline Hysell, fell dead. She couldn't have heard her nephew's query or reply. She was a deaf mute.

State Police Cpl. O. S. Neely said he is going to investigate some more while the nephew is held in the juvenile section of the county jail.

"There are some peculiar circumstances in the case," the coroner said without elaborating.

Mrs. Hysell, a divorcee, lived with her mother, her two children and the nephew on a farm near the Kentucky border.

Passing the Hat

"I can hear the quaking of the knees now," said Flynn. "They're passing the hat around just so I won't drop their names in my book."

"How do I go about getting this book banned in Boston? What I need now is a staff of lawyers."

Flynn at first cautiously planned to finish his book with events around 1940 "when I felt that had clamped on my shoulder," his arrest on rape charges.

"The publisher," said Flynn, "viewed this suggestion with dismay. He wants the rape trials included—and I could write plenty about the truth of that. But if I leave that out I could end my book with the notice to tune in for the next volume."

Syracuse University's Best Basketball Season

Syracuse University's best basketball season in victories was 1945-46. The Orange that season won 23 games and lost 4.

Pepsi Goes to Japan

TOKYO (AP)—Pepsi-Cola, an American soft drink, soon will be sold in Japan on a limited basis, an official of the Agriculture and Forestry Ministry said Monday.

He said about $20,000 worth of Pepsi-Cola syrup will be available at selected hotels, airports and golf links.

Pictures Shelf

"I can see my shelf now—The Collected Works of Errol Flynn."

Flynn already has dictated 40,000 words of his book, including "pleats about my life with Tiger Lily"—his first wife, Lili Damita. He also will dwell on his early days at Warner Studio when the contract list included such personalities as Humphrey Bogart, John Garfield, Bette Davis and Olivia De Havilland.

Unlike Diana Barrymore and other recent autobiographers, Flynn claims he's writing his book with no help from a collaborator. The debarator actor has two published books to his credit.

What the title of his memoirs will be, Flynn hasn't decided.

"I'm trying to think of an ecclesiastical title because I hope this will be a work of some merit," Flynn said.

Wishing Well

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.
