Piano Septet To Play Friday

Salem Federated Music Clubs and the Oregon Music Teachers Association are presenting the Salem Septet in a concert this coming Friday night, May 10. The program will be at 8:15 o'clock in the Fine Arts auditorium of Willamette University. The septet is made up of a group of local teachers, members of both teaching organizations, and is directed by Norman Reynolds, formerly on the faculty of the music department at Clark College, Vancouver, Wash. The septet was organized about a year ago and last June gave a trial concert. This concert was well received, and since then they have played for the Kiwanis convention and have given a concert in Silverton sponsored by the Silverton Music Teachers. The seven pianists of the septet all lead active lives in Salem. They teach full schedules and several are raising families. They are Frances Palmason, Dorothy Lee, Jean Morrison, Marjorie Muntz, Mary Johnson, Marjorie Chumbley, and Doris George Hale.

Guild Installs New Officers

BING CROSBY sounds off on TV, Presley, Sullivan, Sinatra!

In an exclusive interview with Pete Martin, the dean of American entertainers speaks his mind about:
ELVIS PRESLEY—Bing gives his frank opinion of the famous sideburned phenomenon—and offers his own prediction of Presley's future in the entertainment world.
ED SULLIVAN—Bing tells Ed's unusual secret of success—and reveals a show-business fact about Sullivan most people don't know.
FRANK SINATRA—Crosby makes several candid remarks about Sinatra and his talent—some of which may amaze you.
HARRY BELAFONTE—PAT BOONE—The old master talks about their styles. And why there seem to be so many young singing "bright lights" these days—and why they don't last very long.

African Violet Show And Plant Sale Set

Salem African Violet Society is planning a show and plant sale on May 16, the event to start off with a potluck dinner at 6:30 o'clock in Mayflower Hall. The interested public is invited. Mrs. Charles Warren will show colored pictures of African violets taken at the national convention. Noble Basher will show pictures taken on his trip to Mexico, also of orchids and other interesting plants.

African violets and other plants will be on sale. Members of the society are being asked to bring their African violets and other blooms for arrangements.

WEBFOOT (Special)—The Webfoot Social Service Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. John Hackworth. Those present were: Mrs. Ralph Curfman, Mrs. Tommy Lyman, Mrs. Edith May, Mrs. Rosco Roberts, Mrs. Helen Freshour, Mrs. Gertrude Morgardidge, and Mrs. Anna Holdredge. The next meeting will be a potluck dinner meeting at the home of Mrs. Tommy Lyman in Amity.

ant, and Diane Jeske, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Both junior attendants wore dresses of the same material as that worn by the honor attendant. Candelighters were Miss Diane Skirvin of Mehana and Mrs. Robert Miller of Lyons. Their frocks in light green were styled identically to the honor attendant's and they wore wristlets of daisies.

Claire Limbeck was best man for his brother, Jimmy Abbott, younger brother of the bride, was junior attendant for the bridegroom, and Marlin Circle of Salem, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Following the service a reception was given at the church. Yellow snapdragons, lilies of the valley and yellow tulips decorated the room for the reception. Mrs. Taylor Cooper of Stayton was in charge of the decorations.

Mrs. William E. Cross of Eugene, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Clarence Olds of Harrisburg assisting. Two aunts of the bridegroom, Mrs. Ross Chrisman of Albany and Mrs. Elmer Limbeck of Scio, poured. Mrs. Everett H. Bixby of Salem, an aunt of the bride, was at the punch bowl. Others assisting were Mrs. J. E. Lahey of Portland, an aunt; Mrs. R. G. Wood of Stayton, Miss Carol Chrisman of Albany, Mrs. Marion Jones of Portland, Mrs. Patricia Seeber, Mrs. J. Johnson of Eugene, Mrs. Harold Woddy, the latter in charge of the flowers. Ladies of the church and the intermediate and senior girls of the church assisted in serving.

For going away the bride wore a blue dress with white accessories and corsage of white orchids, and carried a pink coat. The couple will make their new home near Stayton.

Limbeck-Abbott Wedding Sunday at Stayton Church

A pretty setting of spring blooms marked the wedding of Miss Carolyn Idell Abbott of Stayton and Merle Otto Limbeck of Scio, Sunday afternoon in the Methodist church at Stayton.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. Kenneth F. Abbott, pastor of the church, and Mrs. Abbott, and Mr. Limbeck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Limbeck, route 2, Scio.

Large baskets of lilacs, ranging from the dark to light shades, and white spirea, and candles decorated the church for the 4 o'clock service at which the Rev. H. G. Hormann, Salem, retired, a long time friend of the Abbott family, officiated. For the music Mrs. J. Headrick played the marches and accompanied Mrs. Ted Boehme of Aumsville, soloist. The bride's father also sang and during the ceremony sang "The Lord's Prayer."

For her wedding the bride wore a net and lace over heavy satin dress, in floor length. It was styled with a V-neck with inset net yoke and long sleeves, the bodice buttoned down the back. The illusion veil, edged in Chantilly lace, was one long used in the family and it was arranged from a crown of stiff lace trimmed with seed pearls. For her flowers the bride carried a cascade arrangement of white Shasta chrysanthemum daisies. The bride wore a silver cross the bridegroom had ordered made in Germany while he was in service there.

Mrs. Claire Limbeck, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a light yellow brocaded taffeta frock and a hat of matching material with daisy brim. She wore a daisy necklace and carried a bouquet of Ester Reed daisies. Oralee Boehme, Aumsville, was junior attend-new safe All-in-One capsule discovery for EASY REDUCING

All-in-One Plan now helps you take off your fat while you eat the foods you choose
Do you like sweets, candy, cake, butter, gravy potatoes? Have you tried one thing after another to reduce, spent dollar after dollar for pills and tablets and in spite of everything you've tried you're still too fat? Well, be as skeptical as you like, but now, right now, there's a wonderful new kind of capsule that helps you take off pounds and inches of ugly fat safely, quickly and so much easier you hardly know what's happening. You don't suffer starvation dieting hunger, you take no drugs, you don't exercise. In fact, you don't even diet one bit more than you want to, because you automatically eat less and here's why...
counteracts hunger
Just recently a well known scientist perfected a new tiny capsule that combines not one but ALL THE RECOGNIZED proven aids to reducing. It combines the vitamins and minerals often lost when cutting off fattening foods containing these needed vitamins and minerals. It combines the vegetable cellulose that has no calories yet expands when it absorbs water thereby helping give the feeling of a full, contented stomach. In fact these tiny capsules are so packed with vitamins and minerals, protein and non-calorie filling food, they actually equal and exceed many a meal.
fat goes fast
You'll be surprised at the fat you lose the first week, the inches that disappear the first month. No hunger, no strict dieting, no drugs, no exercise. And the cost is absolutely nothing unless you grow slim, more youthful looking, more active and enjoy better health.
We certify that ALL-IN-ONE CAPSULES are entirely safe for human consumption.
