

Wedding in St. Luke's Saturday

WOODBURN (Special) — St. Luke's Catholic Church at Woodburn was the setting Saturday, May 4, at 10 a.m. for the wedding of Miss Phyllis Ann Gamroth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Gamroth of Woodburn, and LeRoy Hoffman son of Mrs. Katie Hoffman of Milwaukie. The nuptial high mass was sung by St. Luke's women's choir, directed by Mrs. Tom Gorman Jr., with Miss Margaret Petshow at the organ. Father John Larkin officiated at the ceremony. Decorations were in a color scheme of pink and white, carried out with carnations and anemones.

Escorted by her father the bride wore a waltz length dress of imported Chantilly lace, styled with Sabrina neckline and bouffant skirt. Her fingertip length veil of tulle was held in place by a lace cap. The bride carried a cascade of lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid and pink elfe roses.

Miss Marilyn Gamroth was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a dress of white and pink chiffon, and carried a white fan centered with rose carnations. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary K. Toohy of Salem and Miss Dorothy Hoffman, sister of the bridegroom. They wore frocks of white and pink chiffon and carried white fans with light pink carnations.

Best man was Peter Hoffman, brother of the bridegroom, and groomsmen were Patrick Gamroth, brother of the bride, and Jim Nesmith, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Ushers were Roman Hess of Beaverton, a cousin of the bride, and Gilbert Wolf of Milwaukie, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gamroth wore a pink ensemble with white accessories and corsage of white cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Hoffman wore a beige ensemble with a corsage of pink orchids.

A reception was given at St. Luke's parish hall. Cutting the bride's cake were Miss Mary Lucy Cebrala and Mrs. Walter Scarborough, Jr. Pouring were Mrs. Otto Haller, Mrs. Willis Vincent, Mrs. Boyd Lunder and Mrs. Irvin Smith. Hostesses were Mrs. Ben Miller, Mrs. Don Madison, and Mrs. Alfred Halter. Mrs. Alfred Aicher passed the guest book and at the gift table were Mrs. Francis Krieger, Mrs. Roman Hess and Mrs. HJ Soler. Servers were Misses Barbara Wengenroth, Mary Connelly, Mary and Sharon Donnelly and Margaret Petshow. Pink and white carnations decorated the serving table.

For the wedding trip Mrs. Hoffman wore a pink ensemble with black and white accessories and a corsage of white orchids. The bride presented her bouquet at 3 p.m. in the Maryhurst College chapel, a traditional event for former students of the college. The couple will be at home in Portland after May 7.

Duo Wed at Oakville Church
Wed recently at the Oakville Community Church were Mrs. Velle Felton Heider of Eugene and Carl Eddie Linegar of Corvallis. The service was at 3 p.m. April 17, the Rev. Howard Patterson officiating. George Otto Heider lighted the candles. Floyd Bulman was soloist and Victor Yates played the organ.

The bride wore a white nylon frock with blue trim, in ballerina length, and a blue flower hat, and carried a nosegay of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. E. J. Robertson was honor attendant for the bride. She wore a pastel orchid faille dress and carried a nosegay of yellow chrysanthemums.

Russell Linegar was best man. Ushers were Forrest Gust, Jr., Duane Felton, Larry Felton.

The reception was in the church basement. Mrs. Duane Felton cut the cake. Mrs. Russell Linegar and Mrs. Floyd Bulman poured. Assisting were Mrs. Violet Stafford and Miss Ila Felton.

For traveling the bride wore a pink embroidered linen sheath dress with white coat and accessories. The couple will be at home on Route 4, Box 327, Corvallis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Felton of Corvallis and Mr. Linegar is the son of Mr. Albert Linegar of Corvallis.
