Dinner Marks 35th Birthday Of Lions Club

Having observed the 35th anniversary with a dinner meeting at the Senator Tuesday night, members of the Salem Lions Club were looking ahead to the time when they could celebrate 50 years of activity.
Officials and members of Lions International from several parts of the state were among the diners. These included Clarence L. Sturm, Wanawa, Wis., third vice president of organization who gave the keynote address, and Verne Hawn, Eugene, Lions International director.

17 PRESIDENTS ATTEND
Seventeen of the 35 men who have served the club as president since 1922 were in the audience as well as two charter members—Secretary Harry Scott and Merrill Ohling.
A feature of the program was a brief oral sketch of the former presidents given by Scott and Ohling.

KIMSEY WELCOMES
William Kimsey, who will conclude his term as president June 30, welcomed the guests and presented Dr. Daniel H. Schulze who presided as master of ceremonies.
Musical numbers were given by Ronald Platt, pianist, and William Utley, vocalist.
Ex-presidents of the club in attendance were: Scott, Ohling, Oscar D. Olson, Schulze, George A. Rholet, Virgil T. Golden, Monroe S. Cheek, Edward Majek, E. Burr Miller, LeRoy J. Stewart, Edwin Schreder, Leo D. Reimann, Carl Aschenbrenner, Denver Young, Loren Mori and William J. Lepper.
