

Nine-Year-Old Girl Slain on Way to School

BRISTOL, Conn. (AP)—A pretty, blonde 9-year-old girl was abducted on her way to school and slain yesterday.

The body of Brenda Jane Doucette, a third grader, was found in the woods just outside Bristol last night with a man's sleeveless sweater wrapped tightly around her neck.

An autopsy showed she had not been raped nor was there any evidence of an attempted sexual attack, said Deputy Coroner Frank Healey.

Brenda's body was found fully clothed at 7:30 p.m. in a clump of bushes nearly four hours after she had been reported missing by her father, Baxter Doucette.

Dr. Irving S. Platt, medical examiner, said the child apparently was slain shortly after leaving for school.

The spot where her body was found is in the opposite direction from school and about 3 1/2 miles from the home where she lived with her parents and 4-year-old brother David.

DOROTHY DIX COLUMN

Don't Detour to Bad Habits Of Seemingly Popular Girls

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Several weeks ago, in answer to an offer in your column, I wrote for a leaflet on saying grace. I was delighted with it, and my family has been inspired to say grace at each meal—a custom I have always wanted to institute.

Now I have a request. Do you have a similar leaflet on children's prayers? If so, I would be very grateful to receive it.—Anita D.

DEAR ANITA: Thanks for your appreciative words. Many readers reported equal satisfaction with the grace leaflet. I shall be very happy to send you a few prayers for children, if you will send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope. This offer, of course, is open to all readers.

I would also like to recommend most highly, a delightful book for youngsters. This is Dale Evans' Prayer Book for Children, a beautiful illustrated book that will appeal to children and grownups.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Does it pay to be a good girl? We are two teen-agers of average looks, watching all the boys flock to the girls who smoke, drink and pet. We have no desire to do the same, but would like to be popular. Is that the only way?—Sally.

DEAR SALLY: Your quiet way of life may not be the road to quick popularity but it is the way to meet nice boys and, most assuredly, it's the shortest road to marriage. Don't detour.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I'm a 64-year-old widow, still slim, attractive and well dressed. A bachelor, younger than me by a few years, has been dating me for the past year. He won't take me out in public. We go to the movies, he brings me right home, and won't even stop for a soda.—Alyce.

DEAR ALYCE: Your beau may be telling people his lady companion is a slick chick of 20 or so. If the movie dates are pleasant, keep them up; if you're angling for something more, put your wishes on the line.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: My boy friend gave me his very expensive ring. I lost it last week. What shall I do? Duplicate it or what?—Polly.

DEAR POLLY: Tell the truth. Accidents happen to everyone.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: My boy friend is in service. He seems to like me, but an ex-girl friend of his is sending him money. I'm afraid this will make him like her more than he does me.—Rose.

DEAR ROSE: If your boy friend is for sale to the highest bidder, don't enter into negotiations. You want a boy who likes you for yourself, not for your bankroll.

Send your problem to Dorothy Dix. Or write for her free leaflet D-36, "Guidance to Gracious Living." In all cases, be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and send request to her care of this newspaper.

3 Jet Fighters Streak 6,710 Miles Non-Stop

LOS ANGELES (AP)—For three young U. S. Air Force pilots, it was a breakfast of steak and eggs in jolly England and an afternoon round of drinks in balmy Los Angeles.

In between was an historic 14-hour, five-minute nonstop flight of 6,710 miles—longest ever made by single-engine jet planes. The hop was made at an average speed of more than 475 miles an hour.

After they brought their F100C Super Sabre Jets down here yesterday, the fliers described the trip as a routine, long-range, cruise control flight. But Air Force brass regarded it as something more dramatic than that.

Gen. Otto P. Weyland, commander of the Tactical Air Command, wired the pilots: "Your flight . . . gave added emphasis to TAC's position as a global deterrent to limited war. As demonstrated by the mission today, TAC's atomic forces can reach any point when aggression occurs."

The three swept-wing Super Sabres were piloted by Capt. Jack Bryant, 28, Muskogee, Okla.; Capt. Alan Engle, 28, Aden, Mich.

and Lt. Theodore Workman, 25, Oxford, Mich. They were part of a flight of six planes sent over the Atlantic to Jamestown, Va., to help celebrate the 350th anniversary of the founding of that historic colony. The other three planes in the flight landed near Jamestown.

The California-bound jets broke the nonstop distance record for

Moving Sign Irksome

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (AP)—A "no parking" sign that is constantly on the move irked patrolman James M. Mahoney. He wrote in his daily report: "I suggest that the sign in front of the Imperial Hotel on 2nd Street reading 'No Parking' be bolted or set into the sidewalk to prevent people from moving it to please themselves."

WAC Observes 15th Birthday

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Women's Army Corps marks its 15th anniversary today with celebrations at posts at home and abroad.

Col. Mary L. Milligan of Edgewood, Pa., fifth director of the WAC, sent official greetings to the 8,500 members of the corps now on active duty.

"We feel a justifiable pride," she said, "in the realization that the history of our corps has proved that American womanhood can serve effectively in our nation's Army."

She added that in the years ahead "we must be determined to serve our country with devotion regardless of inconvenience or personal sacrifice."

Col. Milligan will review the WAC detachment in a parade at Ft. Myer, Va., and attend a reception there as part of the anniversary ceremonies.

It was on May 14, 1942, that Congress approved a bill creating the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps.

In July 1943, the organization was made part of the regular Army. At its peak strength in World War II, the WAC numbered 100,000.

Graham Rites To Be Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham will dedicate Madison Square Garden as a place of God in a private ceremony tonight.

Tomorrow night in the Garden the globe-trotting evangelist will open his six-week New York crusade to win the city's "unchurched" to Christ.

Graham, 38-year-old Baptist preacher from North Carolina, plans to speak at each night's meeting in the 18,000-seat arena.

The Rev. Dr. John Sutherland Bonnell, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church and an ardent Graham supporter, predicted that an overflow crowd will turn out for the opening address.

A loud-speaker has been set up outside the Garden to take care of any overflow.

Seventy-one extra policemen will be stationed in the Garden area each night throughout the crusade.
