

Attorney Will Ask Delay of Schrunk Trial

Dismissal Sought of Charges Against Mayor and Newsmen

PORTLAND (AP)—There may be a delay before the trial of the next principal in the Portland vice investigation coming up.

The next trial is scheduled to be that of Mayor Terry Schrunk on a charge of lying when he denied that he had accepted a $500 bribe from a gambler. It is scheduled for May 22.

His attorney, Edwin D. Hicks, indicated in state circuit court Monday that he will ask that trial be set back while he moves for dismissal of that and other charges against the mayor.

DISMISSAL SOUGHT

Both Hicks and an attorney for Brad Williams, Oregon Journal reporter, argued in court Monday for dismissal of indictments accusing Schrunk and Williams of obtaining wiretapped information illegally.

That charge stems from a raid on the residence of Raymond Clark, where tape recordings were seized. The raid later was held in a state court to be illegal. The recordings were used in evidence, however, in the trial of Clark and Elkins on wiretap charges in U.S. District Court.

Convicted, Elkins and Clark face possible sentences of seven years and possible fines of $70,000.

'UNDERMINED GOOD WORK'

Williams' attorney, Manley B. Strayer, attacked the work of the recent grand jury, which returned indictments against Schrunk and Williams. He said it had undermined "all the good work which was done by the previous grand jury."

Strayer said the grand jury had been "misled" by the attorney general's assistants, added that the grand jury had ignored the advice of Atty. Gen. Robert Y. Thornton, and that Thornton had received "the double cross."

The grand jury returned 60 indictments and issued a report in which Thornton was criticized at length.

Strayer called for Thornton to resubmit the cases to another grand jury to get "calm appraisal in the proper atmosphere."

Wind Fatal to Memphis Lady

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A severe thunderstorm rolled across Memphis yesterday, killing a woman who had sought shelter from the rain under the canopy of a department store.

Three men were injured, none seriously. Wind gusts reached 46 miles an hour—gale force—and a tornado funnel was sighted in the storm clouds. There was no extensive property damage, however.

Mrs. Gladys Marie Benson, 32, was killed when the wind ripped a 200-pound concrete coping from the department store and sent it crashing into the canopy.

12 Hungarians Meted Prison

BERLIN (AP)—The official East German news agency ADN said today a Budapest court has sentenced 12 more Hungarians to prison for their part in last fall's anti-Communist uprising.

The defendants were accused of having contacted "foreign organizations"—including Radio Free Europe—and of illegally possessing firearms.

ADN said the leader of the group, identified as Gyula Sinkovits, was sentenced to life imprisonment and the others were given terms of up to 15 years. It did not say when the sentences were passed.

Airliner Down In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—A wide search was pushed through a rugged Andes Mountain area today for an Argentine airliner missing with 15 persons reportedly aboard.

Army cavalry and mounted frontier police led the hunt. The plane operated by the government-owned Lineas Aereas del Estado, disappeared yesterday in fog and heavy rain after leaving Buenos Aires for the Andean resort of San Carlos de Bariloche, 780 miles to the southwest.

Hindu Sadhu Held In Child Murders

CALCUTTA (AP)—A 40-year-old Hindu sadhu—a religious beggar—has been arrested on a murder charge after authorities found the skulls of six children in his possession.

The man reportedly said the skulls were given to him by his mentor for use in practicing magic.

A number of headless children's bodies have been found recently on the outskirts of Calcutta.

Gum Fails to Catch On
DETROIT (AP)—Gum machines installed by the financially distressed Detroit Street Railways on 15 city buses April 1 dispensed only 9,830 sticks of gum in five weeks at a penny a stick. The city's cut was $14.75. The machines are being discontinued.
