

IT WAS BRONCS like this that made the cowboys pull leather, and kept the judges on the ball; the judges for the show were Fred Woods of Portland, Or., and Lee Tom Warm Springs.

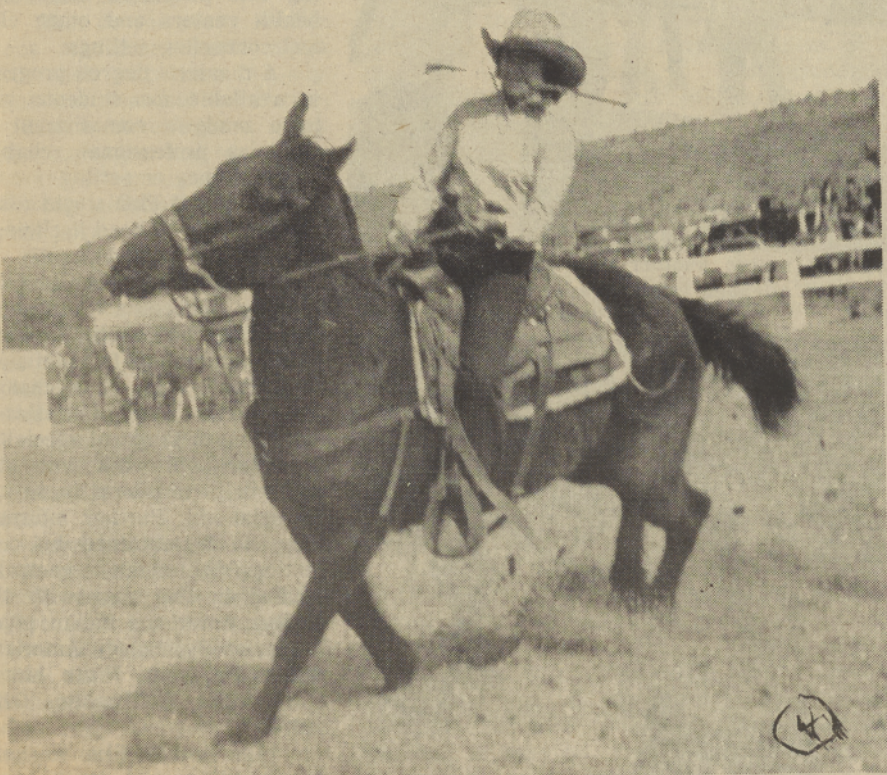

SAMMY SQUIEMPHEN Placed 4th in exceptionally tough barrel racing competition.

THE HORSES had their share for the day as they kept the cowboy's in a storm - some of the Northwest's better bronc riders hit the dirt.

ED FISHER making a money winning ride on a tough horse called Dirty Dan.

CARMELA SCOTT doing her thing in the barrel race, but her efforts were not good enough to place.

THE WILD HORSE RACE, a wild, exciting, but dangerous event at any rodeo; here Branham, Hardin and a unidentified helper are set to go.