HEROES OF AMERICAN HISTORY

DID YOU KNOW: That 33 years ago the Americans regained possession of the island Guam on August 10, 1944. Costly to American lives; 1200 marines and 177 soldiers. The enemy losses were as high as 11,000, but it was said there were many more that had committed suicide in caves and the jungles. It was claimed that there were many more survivors and the last one surrendered in 1972.

There was this sharpie that met his Gungel friend on a downtown street. The sharpie asks his good ole buddy; say how much bread do you have? The other dude said; I've only got $20.00. The sharpie said lend me twenty and I'll show you how we can solve my problem. The dude said, if I give you $20.00 I won't have anything. The sharpie said, I can take care of that, no problem. The dude gives him the $20.00, and said now how can you solve the problem? Don't worry, here, I'll lend you $10.00, see how simple it is? Oh! Yeah said the dude, we both have $10.00, it works out just fine don't it. Yeah! said the sharpie and now you owe me $10.00 so pay up. The dude gives back the $10.00. Sharpie, Now we're even so scram . . . Yikes!!!!

There was this guy that had just arrived home from college. He was met at the airport by his fiancée. She said to him, just one more year of school and we can get married. What will you be after you complete school? He said I'm studying animal husbandry. "Great," she said, all men are animals anyway, right. Yikes!!

I understand that there is going to be an investigation done on the congress and guess who is going to do the investigation? Well, the congress will do their own investigation; this would be like giving a key to the co-ed dorm to Bert Reynolds for safe keeping. "Yikes."

You know that the old Navy uniforms will be used once again. You know the ones with the bell bottoms, the flap on the back of the shirt and the little white cap again. At the present time they have the jacket and cap which look like officers, some of them were miss taken for warrent officers and the warrent officers were miss taken for enlisted men; and also did you know that the flap on the front of those bell bottoms pants have 13 buttons and they represent the original 13 colonys. One day I heard these two sailors talking about these buttons and one sailor said I'll never wear these bell bottoms to another drinking party and the other sailor asked why and the first said I must have gotten carried away and drank to fast and too much, everything was going just fine but I couldn't get South Carolina unbuttoned. Yikes!

Referendum Date Set For Aug. 9 Simnasho - Schoolie Water

The Tribal Council has called for a referendum vote on August 9 to determine if the Tribes want to spend $360,000 for a Simnasho - Schoolie Flat domestic water system.

EDA (Economic Development Administration) will make available matching funds but wants to make sure the Confederated Tribes are willing to put up their 50 percent before obligating any money for the project.

The EDA money which will be made available is only for drought-affected water systems. EDA okayed the money on the basis of the existing need for domestic water at Simnasho-Schoolie at this time.

The project would include installing two 150,000 gallon reservoirs and piping water up from Beaver Creek. Both Simnasho and Schoolie Flat would be tied into the system and be served by the same source.

The new system, if approved by the voters, will be able to supply enough water to serve well over a hundred homes. The total cost of the project is estimated to run $720,000.

The election will be at the teen center from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. August 9.

Below is a sample ballot so voters can study what the referendum calls for.
