

SPORTS

As soon as Vernon Spino roped this steer at the Huckleberry Feast Rodeo, Marla Patt dashed in to remove the ribbon from the beast's tail.

Unfortunately for Marla, the ribbon wasn't very clean. (Sandy Rangila Photo)

Terry Squiemphen making a ride on a saddle bronc at the Huckleberry Feast Rodeo. A wild and wooley show, where all the cowboys had fun.

He He Rodeo Was a Real Sizzler

The sun-scorched HeHe arena didn't look very inviting at 2:00 in the afternoon last weekend so the annual Huckleberry Feast Rodeo got underway about two hours late both Saturday and Sunday.

In fact, it was so hot that when the rodeo was supposed to start, this reporter was sitting with both feet in the water watching two kids trying to stab a crawdad with a big fork.

But about 4:00 p.m., Nathan "Eightball" Jim's voice boomed out over the loudspeaker and woke everybody up. "Hurry up," he warned. "It's gonna snow. Get your rigging on!"

Kids' wild cow riding kicked off the show — and dusted off a few britches at the same time. A few of the courageous contestants got the wind knocked out of them when they hit the hard turf.

"It really takes guts for these kids to ride," boomed Eightball's voice again. "Not the kind of guts that Bull Neck and I have, but the real thing!"

During the ribbon roping, as Marla Patt triumphantly reached the flagman, Eightball asked, "Is the ribbon clean?" At that point, Marla had already dropped the ribbon having discovered, to her dismay, that it wasn't.

Undoubtedly because of the heat, there were fewer contestants and a smaller crowd than usual. But it was fun and some youngsters may have gotten their start at this very rodeo.

Though the contestants were mostly local people, some came from as far away as Arizona to participate.

Somehow, the rodeo results got lost in the shuffle, but the winners know who they are and besides, after the jackpot money was doled out, it was too hot to worry about lists.

This young cowboy must have been thinking about sunbathing on California beaches just before he hit the turf 'cuz it looks like he's practicing his swan dive off this angry wild cow. (Sandy Rangila Photo)

Kah-Nee-Ta Golfers Elect Officers

Kah-Nee-Ta Men's Golf Association held election of officers last Thursday after regular play and results were:

President: Mike Clements
Vice-Pres: Cece Conner
Sec.-Treas: Benny Heath
Tournament Chmn: Satch Miller

On Sunday, August 14 a monthly Men's Tournament was held and winners were as follows:

1. Low Gross 1st - Bob Wilkinson; 2nd - Mike Clements; 3rd - Levi Bobb

Low Net 1st - Al Wyatt;
2nd - Cecil Seyler; 2nd - Jim Cornett; 3rd - Everett Miller

Long drive No. 3 - Bob Wilkinson

Long drive No. 16 - Satch Miller

K.P. No. 2 - Everett Miller
K.P. No. 15 - Al Wyatt

Short Drive No. 3 - Larry Langley

High Gross - Les Tane-washa

High Score one hole - Biff Johnson (12 one No. 11)

There were sixteen participants, Shaman was excused to partake of his duties and obligations required of those with royal blood. There is a one-day Tournament at the Capital City Golf Course, Olympia, Washington on August 20th, tee-off at 10:45 A.M., post entries will be accepted. Entry fee: $20. includes a Salmon-bake dinner.

1st Annual All-Indian Rodeo:

There will be a 1st annual All-Indian rodeo at Molalla, Or. on September 3-4, 1977. This will be a Oregon Indian Cowboy Association sanctioned rodeo with two performances starting at 7:00 pm Saturday and at 1:00 pm on Sunday. This will take place in the new Molalla Buckaroo rodeo arena.

There will be seven major events which include saddle bronc, bareback, bull riding, calf roping, team roping, wild cow milking, and the girls barrel race. The entry fee is $30 except for the girls barrel race; the entry fee is $25 and in the team roping the entry fee is $30 per man and one can enter two times.

An added attraction will be the wild horse race with the entry fee $30 per team; this will be a jack-pot event.

Stock will be furnished by the 10 bar rodeo stock contractors Butch Hurtado and Earl Squiemphen. Admission will be charged at the gate. There will be plenty of concessions on the grounds.

For more information call Portland 255-8456 or 761-7747, in Molalla call 829-2732.

Rodeo sponsored by the Willamette Valley Indian Rodeo Committee.

Jacob Frank Jr. up for the 660 yd. race at the recent Deschutes Co. Fair Redmond, Or. Aug. 6-7, 1977, being ponied by Evans Spino. The "Rev." a former Race Rider.