Inmates Offer Challenge

Greetings Brothers:

We, the Brotherhood Of American Indians, would like to extend our hand in Brotherhood to all Brothers interested in playing a baseball and-or basketball game with the Brothers here at the Washington State Penitentiary in Walla Walla.

Baseball season is just around the corner, and basketball is now on, and we would like to know how many outside teams would be interested in playing our club team here.

In order for us to have Brothers from the outside come in we will have to have their names and ages. This should be done by sending a letter to, Mr. Larry Hines, Recreation Director, P.O. Box 520, Walla Walla, Washington, 99362, and also by sending a copy of the same letter to me. Be sure that you put a definite date that you will be able to make it.

Dear Friends,

I would like to thank Natural Resources and Tenino Wino, the General, Lee, Woody and Jeronimo for all the time spent to get me out of the mud last week. And Alice for the sandwiches she made for the crew.

I would like for all my family and friends to write to me and tell me the latest happenings on the reservation. Thank you.

Due to weekly activities here and the possible fact that most of your team members are employed during the weekdays, the best day to schedule any game would be on either a Saturday and-or Sunday afternoon. Doubleheaders will be possible.

Thank you very much for your consideration, regarding this letter, and your co-operation of relaying this information on.

May the Great Spirit Watch over each and everyone of you.

Your assistance is appreciated.

Sincerely A Brother,

can begin to speak about it. We want to thank the many people who were so kind and thoughtful during our sad time, especially our relatives who pitched right in and made things go smoothly.

We are still answering the many cards we received. If you haven't heard from us, it's not because your kindness isn't appreciated. It just takes a while to start communicating again.

Thank you, everyone.

Funds Sought For Celilo Longhouse

In the memory of their deceased ancestors who once lived at Celilo village, present Celilo residents are attempting to raise funds to finish or rebuild the Celilo longhouse.

Without a longhouse, residents have no place to hold cultural, educational or social activities. The importance of a longhouse is recognized because traditional practices help strengthen people and their sense of community.

The longhouse is in such a state of disrepair, that it is the highest priority on a list of many, to finish or rebuild. Celilo is in limbo as far as funding goes. When Government money is distributed to reservations, Celilo misses out because they aren't considered a reservation. However, they aren't under county or state jurisdiction either.

They feel it is necessary to initiate raising the funds themselves. They are having a Miss Celilo Wyam contest. Contestants must be single, 13 years of age or older, and be a member of the Yakima, Umatilla or Warm Springs tribes. Each contestant will sell tickets for a benefit drawing which is to be held Sunday April 9, at the Celilo Longhouse. Persons need not be present to win. For more information contact Rosita Jene Wesley; P.O. Box 666; Toppenish, WA 98948. Ph: (509) 877-2452.

CELILO LONGHOUSE

"The Longest Walk"

We have chosen this name because it is symbolic of the many walks our people have had to take in the past 486 years. But on this walk we will be joined by non-Indians as well. Yes, many many people of all races are joining us for this historic walk.

This effort will be costly in terms of food, clothing, shoes, socks and gas money for two vans. One van for medical equipment and one for food supplies. We will try to provide one hot meal a day. Your help will be deeply appreciated.

We are appealing for funds - winter jackets, wool socks, or canned goods. All checks should be made payable to "The Longest Walk" c-o D.Q. University, P.O. Box 409, Davis, Calif. 95616.

Tell them "The Longest Walk" will be coming to Washington, D.C. and we wish to meet with them and President Carter.

Respectfully yours

Warm Springs is fortunate but the many Indian people who are not so fortunate, who struggle harder in hopes that something good will take place, who have no resources, no leadership. We can not forget them. We must help them. If all we can do is stand beside them and walk.

At the beginning of the school year there was this teacher who asked her pupils during the first day of school, "What was the biggest event and most exciting thing that happened with your family during your summer vacation?" Ed gets up and said, "We went to Disneyland." Ralph gets up and said, "We went ocean fishing." Lloyd said, "We went camping in the mountains." This one guy gets up and puts three periods on the blackboard. The teacher asks him to explain the three periods. "Well," my newly married sister missed one period and the next and after the third there really was excitement in our house." "YIKES"

There was this will that this wealthy man made and it was being read and the relatives were listening expectantly.

Finally came to the part where the lawyer said, "And to my nephew, Charlie Brown, whom I promised to remember - 'Hi there Charlie Ole boy!'" "YIKES"

Charlie returned home from work one evening and noticed a real bad burn on his wife's ear.

"What on earth happened to you?" he asked.

"Well," she said, "While I was doing the ironing I was so wrapped up in this afternoon mystery movie. Suddenly the phone rang and I just answered the iron." "YIKES"

There was this little boy who tugged at his mother's coat in church and asked, "What's the lady next to me singing?"

"Alto," hastily whispered his mother.

"No wonder she sounds so funny," said the little boy. "We're singing Silent Night!" "YIKES"

There was this guy that returned home from the bar one night with a black eye. "What happened to you?" asks his wife. "There was this big guy hit me in the eye." "Did you hit him back?" "No because I hit him first!" "YIKES"

There was this midget sitting in a bar drinking a highball when he walked a big mean looking guy. He looks around at everyone there and said, "I'm mean and tough, and I'm going to beat the tar out of the whole bunch of you, except for that midget at the end of the bar." The midget gets up with confidence and said, "How come you are going to beat the tar out of all these people except me, because they are all my friends. The big mean guy said, "I'm saving you to wipe up the mess with." "YIKES"
