Colville Wins Holiday Tourney

by Roger Stwyer

When the buzzer ended the first half of the championship game, the Colville Tribe of Nespelum was trailing Vermillion, South Dakota, 43-38. At the end of the third quarter Colville made no progress still trailing by five points, 69-64. But with Mike Jordan leading the way in the fourth quarter the Colville Tribe managed to outscore Vermillion to win the 19th Annual Holiday Tournament, 92-89.

Termed as one of the toughest tournaments, competitive-wise by Satch Miller, Holiday Tournament director, the four day event drew capacity crowds nearly every session. Miller felt that the '77 tournament had more better teams with taller players which provided the tough competition.

Also, two records were broken at the tournament. Pete Conway, Vermillion player, scored 60 points against Nez Perce to break the most points scored in a single game. And the queen candidates broke the sales record, selling $3,200 worth of tickets.

Mina Shike, daughter of Raymond Sr., and Charlotte Shike, was chosen as the Holiday tournament Queen, and Arlene Wewa was first runner up. All four candidates, Mina Shike, Arlene Wewa, Althea Scott and Nisa SoHappy, were given 10 percent of their ticket sales, two pairs of pants, sports jackets and vests, and a week-end at the Hilton Hotel in Portland. In addition, the queen also received a $50 savings bond, garment bag, leather jacket, and a calculator.

The host team, the W.S. Magpies didn't fare as well, dropping their first game to Nespelum, 94-76. After the short rest the Magpies put down Seattle 119-109, to only be defeated by Davis, Calif., 96-83.

Poplar, Montana, placed third and highly favored Ft. Yates, N.D., filled in the fourth place position.

Ben Marchand of the Colville Tribe was named Hustler; Rodney Miller, Poplar, Mont., brought down the most rebounds; and Ken Billingsly, Ft. Yates, N.D., had the most assists. The sportsmanship award went to Poplar, Mont. Mike Jordan, Colville, was named Most Valuable Player.

All-Stars for the Holiday Tournament are: Mike Jordan, Gary George and Bob Tarbell, Colville; Bob Eaglestaff and Pete Conway, Vermillion; Wes Stevenson and Quinton Yankton, Poplar; Ken Billingsly and Tex Hall, Ft. Yates; Ken Bohanan, Davis; Byron Woods, Oakland; and Tom Richman, Nez Perce Nation.

The Magpies playing their third and final game here in Warm Springs during the Holiday Tournament fell to the Davis, California team and bowed out of tourney play. Despite their second half drive they were unable to overtake the big lead the Davis team built in the first half. Pictured at the tip off for the second half shows Lyman Bullchild getting the tip on the taller Davis center, also pictured is No. 44 Kanim Smith, No. 22 Isaac Mitchell, No. 42 Vernon Suppah and Richard Wells. The other player Ron Suppah not in the picture. The win advanced Davis to consolation play.

Flu Bug Fouls Girls White Buffs

Although Buff Coach Dave Wiles admitted that the Crook County Cowgirls were "better than we were" in last Thursday's game, he did say that some of his girls were battling the flu. The Buffs lost that contest 55-45.

The Cowgirls smoked past the Buffs playing tough defense and they hit 62 percent from the field. High scoring Mary Nelson, who usually averages about 20 points a game, was held to only 11.

One spectator observed that the Buffs "all looked really tired compared to Crook County." Wiles said he wasn't excusing their loss to the flu at all, but it couldn't have helped matters.

Madras hit just 23 percent from the field (16 of 68) and 41 percent from the line (13 of 32).

But Saturday's game against the Grant Union Prospectors was a completely different story with Madras coming out on top 58 to 28.

"We were ahead 25-14 at the half," said Wiles, "but during the third quarter we got our full-court press going and blew them (Grant Union) off the court. We outscored them 20 to 1 in the third quarter," he said proudly.

The junior varsity girls played the last one-and-a-half quarters and actually increased the lead built up by the varsity squad, according to the coach.

Mina Shike was in and out of the game due to her flu condition, and Mary Nelson shot her usual game tallying 24 points.

Wiles described Kimiko Danzuka as a "dedicated kid" who never misses practice. He said she gets better every week - steady improvement.

With an overall record of 7-3 and a league record of 1-1, the Buffs next game will be against Mac Hi tonight (Friday). Coach Wiles doesn't anticipate any problem - "but you never know."
