Locals Participate In Sisters Classic

The first annual "Three Sisters Classic" run got underway precisely at 10 a.m. on Sunday, April 8, in Bend. Kicking off this event was the 10,000 meter race (6.2 miles) which consisted of 130 eager runners on what was an ideal day for the challenging course.

All entries in the 6.2 mile race finished and each runner received a T-shirt and the winners in each category received a ribbon. The various categories included 14 years-old-and-under, 15-19, 20-29, 30-39, 40-49 and 50 and over.

Arron Smith, an 11 year-old Warm Springs youth, placed third in his division and also he was the first local to cross the finish line. Other local entries were Richard, Madeline and Joel Craig, Everett and Leffert Miller, Delson and CeCe Suppah, Fabian and Donna Sutterlee, and Lee Tom.

In the Granddaddy race for the day, the one-half marathon (13.1 miles), there were 85 entries who challenged this tough course. Jerry Sampson, the lone entry from Warm Springs managed to cross the finish line in the number 18th spot.

This will become an annual event and will be held around the first or second week in April of each year. This year's race was sponsored by Adidas and the Optimist club of Bend.
