Accident Takes Life Of Yakima Girl

MARGARET PINKHAM

Yakima Nation Review

A tragic, single car accident claimed the life of Margaret Lovie Pinkham, 21, March 31, 1979. She was the current "Miss Yakima Nation", "Miss NCAI" and first alternate "Miss Indian America".

Margaret was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jay Pinkham, Jr. of Toppenish, July 21, 1958. She is survived by her parents, three brothers and her grandfather Joe Jay Pinkham, Sr. Margaret was a 1975 graduate of Toppenish High School, and a 1978 graduate of Santa Fe Institute of Indian Art.

Dressing ceremonies were held April 1, 1979 at the Colonial Funeral Home in Toppenish. Overnight services which were held at the Satus Longhouse were conducted by Johnson Menninick and Watson Totus. Burial was April 3, 1979 at the Satus Point Cemetery.

Amos Simtustus, Elmer Quinn and Aurolyn Stwyer (Miss NCAI runner-up) were sent by Tribal council to serve as representatives for the Warm Springs people. Council also sent a letter to the Pinkham family expressing their sorrow.

COCC Night at Warm Springs

Central Oregon Community College will host a College open house Thursday, April 26, at 7 p.m. in the Warm Springs Community Center, according to Linda Brown, COCC Native American coordinator.

College staff will be available to answer questions about courses, programs and financial aid at COCC. Also on hand will be Warm Springs Education Specialist Marlin Reimer.

"It's a good opportunity to get better acquainted with the College and the student services available to area Native American students," said Ms. Brown. "The meeting will be informal and I hope prospective students and their parents will join us," she added.

For further information, Ms. Brown may be reached, toll-free, at Commerce 9261, ext. 340.

Boyd-Raboin

Serena Miller Boyd and Arlie Raboin were married April 2, 1979 in Lewiston, Idaho. The bride is the daughter of Earl Miller and is a Warm Springs tribal member. The groom is the son of Lucille Raboin and is a Nez Perce.

The couple will be living in Lapwai, Idaho where Raboin is employed as a construction worker.

LOCAL ARTISTS — Three Warm Springs students were honored recently with a display of their work at the First National Bank Building in Portland. A photograph by Esther Kalama and beadwork by Nadine Meanus and Roland Kalama hung with the artwork of other Oregon students as part of Youth Art Month.
