

Warm Springs honors vets with longhouse dinner

Following the dinner of deer, elk and salmon, Sally Rhoan, Miss Warm Springs 1979, performed the Lord's Prayer in Indian sign language (top right) while Andy Lucas (not pictured) sang the song.

Grant Waheneka, one of only two tribal members ever to retire from the armed forces, acted as emcee for the evening's activities (bottom left).
