

Two complete secretarial course

Natalie Johnson, the daughter of Ruben Johnson, and Lorene Smith the wife of Alvis Smith Jr., have successfully completed the secretarial course from the Trend Business College here at Warm Springs and were honored with a luncheon in the Juniper Room at the Kah-Nee-Ta Lodge December 19.

Carla Knapp, instructor for the Trend Business College, gave a brief run-down on the college by saying that it was established early in 1970, in Vancouver, Washington. After nine years there are now ten Trend Business Colleges scattered here in Oregon and Washington.

Lloyd Smith Sr., personnel and CETA Director, spoke briefly on the purpose and the advantages Trend has provided here in Warm Springs. Smith went on to say that there are a lot of potential students here but are handicapped in one way or another which they are unable to go away for an education either by having a family, lack of funds and other unknown reasons. These two graduates makes three now that have successfully completed the course since the program has been introduced here in Warm Springs.

Benny Heath, Assistant CETA Director, explained to the other students the functions of the CETA funding and future goals on various projects that are in planning for the near future. The CETA program limitations, as mandated by Congress are explained in the following excerpts from the CETA rules and regulations. CETA rules and regulations. 688.85 (e) "No participant shall receive allowances for classroom training for more than 104 weeks in a five year period beginning on participation on the CETA program by any person will be limited.

The CETA program attempts to place individuals in a training program suited to their needs. Accurate information on the application serves the CETA personnel a tool as to the applicants abilities and where best to place them.

Phil Grunlose, CETA Prime sponsor, congratulated the two students for their accomplishments. Both Natalie and Lorene each received a $50.00 gift certificate which was made available by a committee of the other Trend students and chaired by Eliza Hicks.

The main dish of the luncheon was chinook salmon. It is anticipated that others will be completing the course in the future.

Letter to Andy Lucas

KIKO REDWING

Date of Birth: 8-24-63

Dear Andy Lucas,

Hello, how are you doing? I bet you didn't think you were going to hear from me again, well I fooled you! How's everything at Kah-Nee-Ta? I really miss it, very much. I'll tell you what! On my birthday, I'll come up and visit all and everybody! Sound good!

Guess what I'm doing now? I'm living in New York doing a series for television. It's called "The New Voice" and it's coming out next September or October some time. It's a big move from Arizona to Los Angeles and now to New York. My brother is also making himself a future. He's a ballet dancer and a very good one at that. My folks are fine and they send all their love.

How's the weather coming along? Cold I bet! It sure is getting that way over here in the East. I'm sending you a picture of what I look like now. It's a big change from the last time you saw me. Oh, I wanted to know what the address was of the Warm Springs Newspaper company. If you could get that for me, I'd really appreciate it!

Have you visited the places that we filmed lately? I'm planning to come up and do that some day when I get some money in my pocket. Especially coming from New York. Maybe next year! Whenever you decide to come to New York, just look us up!

Well, better get for now! I'll be talking to you sometime. Bye!

With all our love,
Kiko and the family

P.S. The series I'm doing is a Public Broadcasting Service program, so it will be on the PBS station. Tell everybody I said Hi!

Papo Cruz new supervisor

NEW SUPERVISOR—Papo Cruz, 30, is the new supervisor of the parole and probation department, replacing Small-Fire Hawk, who resigned when school stated to work as a counselor at Warm Springs Elementary. Working with Cruz will be Della Estimo, adult probation and parole officer and James Boye, juvenile parole and probation officer. The entire parole and probation department will soon be moving into the trailer parked behind the tribal court.
