

Emily Parker's first grade class at Warm Springs elementary is getting some career orientation. Last week they spent an hour at the administration building observing the roles of some of the employees. The children were awed by the "complicated" looking machinery in use including the mysterious typewriter.

Spilyay Tymoo photo by Shewczyk

School calendar

- January 28 School board mtg. at school support services building, Madras, 7:30 p.m.
- January 28 Oregon Youth Leadership Day
- January 29 Indian Club officers will visit tribal council and attend afternoon session.
- January 29 Juvenile department drug awareness program for parents at the Warm Springs Grade school gym, 7-9 p.m.
- January 30 Johnson O'Malley, Title I program open house at the Grade school cafeteria, 7:30 p.m.
- February 4 Northwest Indian Youth Leadership conference steering committee meeting, E.S.D. building, 9:30 a.m.

Awards given for 4-H Involvement

"Discovery" Club's most promising member

James Greeley is awarded a globe bank by extension agent, Pennie Little, in recognition of being the most promising 4-H member in the Simnasho grade school 4-H "Discovery" Club.

Unintentionally in the past parents have left leadership responsibilities to local and tribal programs. Organizations like 4-H bear a large part of the responsibility for teaching skills to children. Rudy Clements, Municipal branch manager at Warm Springs, spoke at the 4-H awards dessert on January 15. He said that the "whip man" was designed to work with the family and kids. "Now it is time for families and clubs to start working together again, independent of any whip man. The 4-H clubs, therefore, need involved parents in an involved community along with strong leadership. These children are our future."

The Warm Springs community has 90 members in its 4-H clubs, each deserving recognition. The 4-H awards dessert held in honor of the community's 4-H members provided an opportunity to recognize their efforts. Besides a certificate of recognition each member received a "Warm Springs 4-H Club" T-shirt. The most promising members in the clubs were also commended along with the outstanding parent. Recognition awards were given to the following:

In the 4-H Horse Club certificates were received by; Cindy Caldera, Michelle Wells, Donetta Burns, Bill Strong, Lani Strong, Eliza Greene, Lavina Colwash, Oueida

Colwash, Donovan Burns, Becky Aguilar, Jeaninne Thompson, and John Marcum. Leaders of the Horse Club are Rita Squiemphen and Della Estimo.

The Simnasho Grade School Discovery 4-H Club recognition certificates went to; Joseph Rudie, Noni McCraige, Starla Greene, Emil Williams, Kimberly Rhodes, Rena Suppah, James Greeley, Angela Smith, Timothy Yahtin, Casey Green, William Ross, John Ross, Henry Yahtin, Joshua Currey, and Jason Woodside. The most promising member award went to James Greeley. Outstanding parent award went to Lucinda Greene. The leaders of this club

Outdoor Club's most promising 4-H'er

Extension agent, Clint Jacks and 4-H Outdoor Club leader, Emily Akerson present award for most promising 4-H'er to Jeanine Thompson at the 4-H awards dessert held on January 15 at the Community Center.

are Richard Little, Clydell Gilbert and Lorena Bill.

The Rockin' 4-H Livestock Club recognition certificates were given to; Sonja Bryant, Mary Leno, Lonita Leno, Ron Clements, Cyril Jim, Wilfred Jim, Jr., Raymond Jim, Luke Sanders, Pixie Sanders, Vernon Tias, Michelle Wells, Travis Wells, Alvin Wells, Butch David, Norman Wolfe, Everett Windyboy, Virgil Windyboy. The most promising member award went to Luke Sanders. The outstanding parent award went to Ray and Irene Wells. Leader of the Rockin' 4-H Livestock Club is Jeff Sanders.

Recognition certificates in the 4-H Family Cooking Club went to; Deanie Smith, Toli Smith, Olie Smith, Vanessa Orange, Bill Strong, Lani Strong, Gayleen Adams, Janice Suppah, Rebecca Paddlety, June Smith, Juliene Smith. The most promising member in the cooking club was Lani Strong. Leaders are Norma Kaudle Kaule, Lepha Marie Smith, and Winona Strong.

The 4-H Leatherwork Club recognition certificates went to; Greg Pinkal, Cindy Caldera, Veronica Smith and John Miller. John Miller received the most promising member award. Dale Miller received the most outstanding parent award. Leader of the Leatherwork Club is Carmen Pinkal.

The 4-H Outdoor Club member recognition awards went to; Bill Strong, Lani Strong, Jeaninne Thompson, Shirelle Smith, Becky Aguilar, Tracy White Buffalo, Jeffrey White Buffalo, Veronica Smith, Christel Leonard, Stacey Leonard, Troy Leonard, Ferlin Carter and Maurice Smith. Most promising member in the Outdoor Club is Jeaninne Thompson. Outstanding parent is Winona Strong. Leaders of this club are Jim and Emily Akerson.

The 4-H Beadwork Club recognition certificates went to; Joseph Smith, Rhonda Smith, Jamie McKinley, Reatha Johnson, Ely Johnson, Cindy Cladera, June Smith, Juliene Smith, Martha Heathe, Jolie Suppah, Tamara Kennedy, Tobi Smith, Deanie Smith, Tiffany Smith, Shirelle Smith, Sonja Howtopat, Trissie Fuentes, and Buzzy Jo Berry.

The longest enrolled 4-H member in the community award went to Luke Sanders.

Congratulations 4-H'ers!