

Geo-Quiz

John Courtney is the most recent winner of the Geo-Quiz. He identified the location of the last rock formation as being at the six mile post on Jackson Trail Road. Now, where is this one located? If you can correctly identify its location call 553-1644 and you will be entitled to a one year's subscription to Spillyay Tymoo for yourself, or a friend or relative.

April 2
Basketball Jamboree

April 2 is the date set for the American Heritage Tour fund raising jamboree to be held at the Community Center. In three separate games the American Heritage Tour students will play the Mamas, the Papas and the Grandpas.

Members of the American Heritage Tour team include: Karla Bagley, Jewell VanPelt, Missy Still, Cyril Jim, Bobby-Jo Berry, Allie Smith, Jamie Smith, Polly Greene and Cheryl Sutterlee.

Playing against the American Heritage team will be such worthy opponents as Linda Bagley, Eliza Hicks, captain of the Mamas, Chris and Vicky Still, captain Wilfred Jim playing for the Papas, Geraldine Jim, Nola Adams, George Speakthunder, Jello and Campy Smith, and Fabian and June Sutterlee and the referees will be Nita Wesley and Sammy Colwash. Verbena (Beans) Greene is one of the coaches and Delson Suppah is the coach for the Grandpas.

The American Heritage Tour is a six-week guided tour through historical sites which have contributed to American history. The students will leave in June when school is dismissed for the year. Each of the nine students must have $1,200 for basic expenses and travel. Eliza Hicks, who is a parent helping to raise funds says, "We have raised about $1,000 our goal is $5,000. The Confederated Tribes have contributed $400.00 from the scholarship fund. Now it is up to the parents and the students."

Awards will be given after the game for sportsmanship, to the all-stars, and to members of the teams. There will be a prize for Mr. and Mrs. Hustler. Door prizes donated by the parents will also be a part of the festivities.

Funds from this jamboree will be used to send nine Warm Springs youths on a tour they will treasure and never forget. And these games may be an experience you will never forget. That date, again, is April 2, 6:00 p.m. at the Community Center.
