

1980—A year to remember in Warm Springs

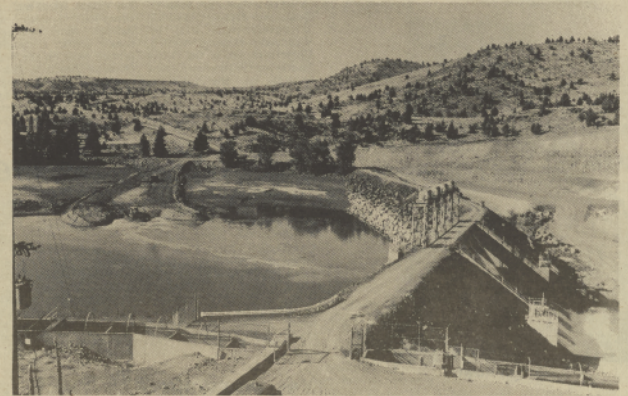

Many people gathered to celebrate the grand opening of the completely renovated alcohol center.

All photos from Spilyay Tymoo files

A new council was sworn in in May. Only three councilmen returned from the last term.

Work began on the Tribe's hydro electric project in April.

We got a light dusting of St. Helen's ash in September.

We received another blue ribbon for our efforts in the Grand Floral Parade

Edith Danzuka retired after 40 years service.

A new eatery, Deschutes Crossing, opened, giving us another place to pig out.