Boxing club travels to Navajo tourney

The Warm Springs Boxing club traveled to Window Rock, Arizona, to participate in the Navajo Nation Golden and Silver glove boxing tournament on April 10 and 11. Out of the 13-man team the local boys brought home 10 championship trophies and one runner-up.

Reynolds Allen got things going as he earned his championship by defeating Antonio Bazea of Milan, New Mexico. This was the 10-11 year-old, 65-pound class.

Cecil Govenor won the 10-11 year-old, 85 pound class by decisioning Phillip Chischilly from the Crown Point boxing team.

Tony Stacona didn't waste any time in taking out his opponent. He did it in just 24 seconds in the first round in 90 pound, 10-11 year-old class. Stacona has been quite effective all season long gaining the honors in different tournaments during the season.

Carl Tewee won the 12-13 year-old, 80 pound title with a victory over Preston Darper of Chenile, Arizona. Coach Gerald Smith said Carl has improved right along this year.

David Lucei was the winner of the 12-13 year, 100 pound class. Lucei knocked his opponent Ervin Jordan of Navajo Nation down two times in the first round, and the referee stepped in to stop the bout. For the championship Lucei was the winner over Johnson John.

Mervin Govenor was the only runner-up in the tourney participating in the 12-13 year old, 105 pound class. Govenor lost to Dexter James of the Navajo Nation boxing team.

Dixon Davis had his first bout for this year and he defeated Curt Porando of the Ute boxing team from Arizona.

Bruce Sam, in the 125-pound open senior class, won with a decision over Rubin Murillo of the Silver City boxing team of New Mexico.

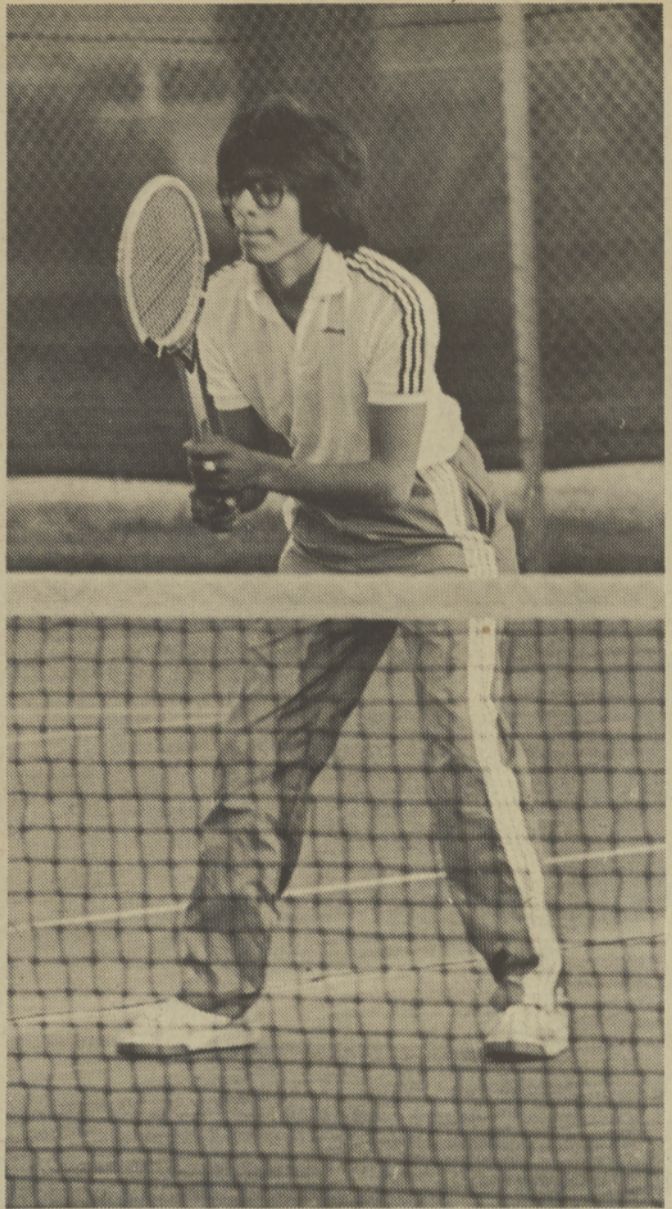

The following boxers were walk-through winners: Cory Scott in the 10-11 year, 60 pound class; Kevin Blueback in 12-13 year, 119-pounds; and Guy Herkshan in the 14-15, 132 pound division.

Desmond Tewee lost his bout to Victor Deer of the Ute boxing team and Murray Kalama lost to Gerald Chelan of Santa Fe. These bouts were in the preliminaries.

Coach Gerald Smith said that all the boys did just good and represented Warm Springs very well. Smith also added that the regular season is over except for the Junior Olympics which will be held June 6 at Mt. Scott in Portland. He would like to remind all the boxers who wish to participate in that tournament to contact him (Smith) three to four weeks prior to that meet for training.

This will be for boys 10 to 15 years old. Winners from 12-15 will advance to the region 12 Junior Olympics tournament which will be held in Marysville, Washington. Winners in the 14-15 year-old class will advance to the tournament in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

DeWayne Charlie awaits the next ball from the opponent during an after school league game. Spring time offers various outdoor sports at Madras High School.

Warm Springs boxing club update

Bringing things up-to-date for the Warm Springs boxing team, on March 21-22 the Warm Springs boxing team hosted the annual Buckskin Boxing Tournament here in the community center. The event drew a total of 133 boxers from the northwest and California, Gerald Smith.

Tony Stacona of the Warm Springs boxing club was named the Outstanding Junior Boxer and Brian Towery from the Douglas Co. boxing club was chosen the top senior boxer for this year's tournament. The Towery/Don Devoe bout was the most exciting bout of the tourney as they battled toe to toe throughout most of the match. Reynolds Allen of Warm Springs won the 10-11 year-old, 60 pound championship to join two team members with championship trophies. They were Lawrence Caldera and Stacona.

Other local boxers who gained runner-up honors include Kevin Blueback, winning the first match, but then he lost in the championship match.

Ricky Sampson, 119 pounds in the open senior class, and Bryon Berry, 147 pounds open senior class, both won their first bouts and lost in the championship round.

The following local boxers were all defeated in the elimination round and they only had one bout during the tournament. They were Cory Scott 10-11, 60; Cecil Govenor 10-11, 85; Alvis Smith III 12-13, 85; Mervin Govenor 12-13, 106; Guy Herkshan 14-15, 132; Don Hoptowit 139, open senior and Todd Danzuka 165, open senior.

The competition was great, some real good boxers pleased the crowd during the two-day affair. Coach Smith stated that he plans on retiring as boxing coach at the end of this season. He expects Ron Govenor, Randy Smith and Alvis Smith Jr. will do the coaching next year.

The Warm Springs Forest Products Industries baseball team busily brushes up on their techniques before their opening game of the season. Their first game will be played on May 2 against Rufus at Rufus.

Softball tourney set

The Chemawa's men's and women's softball tournament is set for May 15, 16, 17, 1981. Also scheduled on the same dates is a powwow starting at 6 p.m. to 12:00 p.m. each day with dance contests and prizes. Dinner will be served. For more information call (503) 393-4511.

Softball for women

The non-competitive Jefferson County Women's Softball Association is now in the process of forming teams and securing sponsors. An opportune time to sign up is May 5 at 7:30 at Buff Elementary School.

This is a non-competitive program for women 18 years of age and older. Games will be played one afternoon a week with no practice sessions. A fee of $5.00 is charged each player to compensate for the cost of T-shirts. People or businesses interested in sponsoring a team are encouraged to get in touch with Margi at 475-3533 or with a player. The name you choose or the name of your business will be printed on a team's T-shirt.

Games will begin in the summer time at the close of school and will last for six weeks. It's good exercise, ladies, and a great way to have fun.

Physical fitness lecture

Physical fitness is an area in which everyone could use some work and advice. Covert Bailey, a well known speaker in the field of fitness, nutrition and body fat will be speaking on May 6 at Bend High School auditorium from 7-9 p.m. Registration for the lecture is $10.

Bailey, author of Fit or Fat, lectures extensively on nutrition and physical fitness. He also operated a physical fitness/body fat clinic that travels to major cities on the west coast. In speaking he interjects humor and common sense to this very confusing field.

The lecture will include comments on diet, fasting, protein, exercise, spot reducing, overfatness, and references to cardiovascular implications of body fat.

If enough interest is expressed a shuttle will be going to the lecture from Warm Springs. For more information and for registration forms contact Eva at the Community Center, 553-1161 ext. 243 or 244.
