Magazines are in bad taste

To the Editor:
I would like to add my voice to Louie Pitt, Jr. who advocates removal of the Lew magazines that are on public display in Macy's. That is corruptive for our youth, no matter what constitutional right is invoked. I'm not even certain that constitution applies on the reservation, anyway!

Anyone attempting to work constructively with youth knows the tremendous "pulls" and hard choices youth are faced with, and how difficult it is to enable (head) them in right directions, towards health and growth.
How ironic that the one and only grocery market and post office and general store, also has to be the purveyor of pornography. There is a place for everything and the magazines are most definitely out of place—in bad taste.

Sincerely,

Guest editorial from the Alcohol Program

Approximately 25,000 men, women and children lose their lives each year in alcohol-related accidents on the nation's highways. An additional one million persons survive those accidents but require hospital care, some are maimed, some disfigured, and others permanently disabled.
Drunk driving is the number one killer of men and women in their teens. More than 4,000 teenagers die in alcohol-related accidents each year and another 20,000 are crippled or disfigured. Parents are urged to discuss drinking and driving with their sons and daughters, to express their own feelings about the problem, and to find out what their youngsters think.

Ask what he or she would do if a close friend had too much to drink and wanted to drive. Make a firm offer to come and pick up your child! if such a situation arises, no matter how late it is. Make sure your teenager knows that you consider his or her safety more important than getting the car home.

Care and concern appreciated

Dear Friends,
It seems I am slow at answering correspondence, so until I get each call, card, and letter answered I wanted to express my thanks and appreciation to all of you who have expressed concern and best wishes during my illness.

Thanks, also, to all of you who have made my days easier by providing meals, rides, and help at work and at home.
Knowing that friends care and are concerned is the best medicine I can think of for anyone!
Hopefully, I will be starting back to work part time June

1st. Until then I would enjoy receiving phone calls or short visits between 3-7 p.m. at my home.

Thanks to everyone,
Sincerely,
Pennie Little

Report fishing violators to police

On April 13, 1981, the Warm Springs Tribal Council passed Resolution No. 5974, closing Sherars Bridge, Warm Springs River, Mill Creek, Beaver Creek, Shitike Creek, to fishing for spring Chinook salmon, from April 1, 1981 to June 21, 1981.
This closure was to insure a continuation of this spring run of salmon for subsistence and ceremonial fishing to the Indian people in future years. The Warm Springs Tribal Police Department will patrol, arrest, and cite any violators into Tribal court. Non-Indians will be cited into State court.

Your help in preserving this Treaty Right and continued salmon spring run, for our children, will be greatly appreciated. Any and all violators should be reported to the Tribal Police Department for investigation.

This valuable resource belongs to the whole tribe and is not an individual's right to make this resource a thing of the past (like the buffalo).

Students disappointed

Dear Editor:
My students have read your article in the April 17th issue of the Spilyay Tymoo concerning the School District Art Fair. They were as disappointed as I to find incorrect information printed in regard to our class art project. Mrs. Henry is a third grade teacher and did not do stained glass windows as her class art project. We (the class and I) would appreciate your printing a correction in the next issue of the paper.

Deborah Wolfe & Students
4th Grade-Warm Springs

The flair with which Spilyay's mistake in the last issue was pointed out demands a flourishing apology. The class at Warm Springs elementary that created the exquisite painted glass windows for the 1st Annual 509-J Art Fair was Debbie Wolfe's fourth grade class and not Linda Henry's fourth grade class. The praise belongs to them alone.

Thanks,
