

Christmas festivities set mood for holidays

Reindeer anxiously await Christmas when they will pulling Santa's sleigh through the sky. Santa's vacation made them wonder if they would be working at all this year.

Rudolph (Jay Scott) is always a star at Christmas time. This time he appeared in the Warm Springs elementary Christmas program.

Decorating the tree is a major part of Christmas. Simnasho students helped decorate the administration building Christmas tree by hanging handmade ornaments on it.

Spilyay Tymoo photos by
Shewczyk and Miller

Reporter Dave West (Harding) interviews Santa at the Community Christmas Program in regards to a star which has been sighted in the east.

Traditional Christmas carols warm the heart. Madras Jr. High and Madras Sr. High combined their efforts to bring a variety of Christmas music to very receptive audience.

Throughout the year children wonder if there really is a Santa Claus. At Christmas time there's no question about it.