Letters to the editor

Good Work

To the editor,

I don't know if you remember me, but I met you in Bemidji, Minnesota, at an Indian media workshop several years ago (my mother is Betty Blue of the Minnesota Chippewa Tribe).

I am working as editor for the Boston Indian Council's monthly newspaper, The Circle. Just wanted to drop a brief note to say that I think your paper is grand, and the photography is superior! Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,

Helen M. Blue, Editor
The Circle

Looking for a penpal

Dear Sirs,

I hope you can help me. I am writing to you for penpals. I will write to anyone who is interested in writing to me, age 24 - 44.

My name is Carlina Hanna and I am 26 years old. I am 5'6 1/2" in height, and weigh 135 pounds. I have dark brown eyes and hair. I am a Cherokee-

Shawnee Indian.

I would also like to have the history of the Warm Springs tribe.

Thank you for your time and trouble.

Sincerely,

Carlina Hanna

Adolescent workshop scheduled

A workshop entitled "The growth and developmental stages of puberty" will be conducted at the Warm Springs elementary school gymnasium on February 2, 1982. The session is for parents and will give them an opportunity to become aware of and appreciate the growth and changes of children as they mature through adolescence.

Linda Allen from the Jefferson County Health department and Dr. Tom Creelman from the Warm Springs Indian Health Services will conduct the presentation.

The discussion will include basic anatomy and physiological changes which boys and girls will experience during puberty. General hygiene, care and understanding will also be discussed.

The workshop will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Appreciation

To all Relatives & Friends,

Extending our deep appreciation, for the flowers, the kind words from many of you, and your presence in time of need.

Your immeasurable contributions of the highest degree during our recent bereavement over the loss of our son, husband, father and brother Byron served to muster strength to stand up and face the reality

Legal Aide Notice

To: All Indians of the Warm Springs Reservation

From January 25, 1982 to March 1, 1982, due to a reduction in staff, the Legal Aide Department will not be able to assist individuals with custody, juvenile or legal counseling. The only type of cases we will be handling will be adult criminal cases.

If you have a pending case, please contact our office. You may have to have a new spokesman represent you.

On March 1, 1982, we will resume these services.

Angelina De La Torre
Legal Aide Department Supervisor
