

Police sponsor pro-wrestling

Big time wrestling is coming to Warm Springs. Wrestlers from Saturday night wrestling of KPTV fame, will be at the Community Center on April 25 to show Warm Springs what wrestling is all about.

The Warm Springs Peace Officers Association is sponsoring this event with proceeds going toward scholarships for two top tribal high school graduates.

The matches begin at 7 p.m. Sunday, April 25. Ringside seats are going at $7.00, and general admission for adults will be $6.00. For senior citizens, students with student body cards, and children 14 years-old and under, admission will be $4.00. Tickets are available now at the Police Station.

The sponsors are seeking volunteers of high school age to sell tickets for the event. Interested persons may contact Rick Souers. Concessions will be sold by the Pi-Ume-Sha Committee.

March 24-27

Yakima to sponsor tourney

The 27th Annual Yakima Nation All-Indian Invitational Basketball Tournament is scheduled for this first week of spring at the Wapato Senior High school gymnasium in Wapato, Washington. The tournament is recognized throughout the Northwest as an arena for highly-skilled and competitive teams.

Teams attracted to the Yakima Valley are traveling from as far away as Lawrence, Kansas and include semi-local Oregon Travelers. The tournament hosts and Yakima Nation representatives, as determined by reservation play-offs, are the Satus Cowboys.

Other confirmed teams for the 12-team confrontation include, Davis California; Vermillion, South Dakota; Colville, Washington; Lodge Grass, Montana; Browning, Montana; Artic Knights, Seattle, Washington; St. Stevens, Wyoming; Nez Perce Nation, Lapwai, Idaho; and the Coup Counters of Kyle, South Dakota.

Championship finals are scheduled for Saturday, March 27, at 8 p.m. Vermillion, South Dakota will be defending their championship title for the sixth consecutive year.

Boxers go to prison

The Warm Springs Police Boxing Club was escorted by their coaches, Ron Govenor and Frank Smith for a match at the Oregon State Penitentiary on March 20. Traveling with the club were Casey Smith, Corey Smith, Cecil Govenor, Mervin Govenor, Jerry Sam, Guy Herkshan, and Tyron Smith. Casey boxed exhibition, while Cecil chalked up a win. Guy won by a knockout over Mike Edinger of the OSP club. Coach Govenor was proud of his club and was pleased with the experience gained in participating in the match. Albany is the next site for Police Boxing club action on the week-end of the 27th.

Buckskin tournament draws Northwest boxers

The Buckskin Boxing Tournament held March 13 and 14 at the Warm Springs Community Center was a great success, according to coordinator Gerald Smith. Besides having many visitors at the tournament several Warm Springs boxers took home trophies making it even more of a success.

The results of the tournament are as follows: 10-11 year, 60 lb. division—Curtis Stauffer, Morning Star Boxing Club defeated Corey Scott, Warm Springs; 10-11 year, 70 lb. division—Tom Milligan, Bellvue defeated Gabriel Lopez, Vancouver Boxing Club; 10-11 year, 75 lb. division—Emmett Linton, Tacoma defeated Anthony Valde, Desert Horse Boxing Club; 10-11 year, 85 lb. division—Jason Hargrave of the Morning Star Boxing Club defeated Tommy Moor, Tacoma Boxing Club.

In the 12-13 year, 80 pound division—Darrin Hodges, Kelso Boxing Club defeated Earl Robine II, Morning Star; 12-13, 90 lb. division—Frank Vassar, Morning Star Boxing Club defeated Bud Keller, Kelso Boxing Club; 12-13, 95 lb. division—Stacey Stamper, Lewiston Boxing Club defeated Kevin Pete, Warriors Boxing Club; 12-13 year, 100 pound division—Spencer Tobey, Warriors defeated John Beaston, Kelso; 12-13 year, 112 lb. division—Stanley Running Wolf, Reno Pal Boxing Club defeated Myrton Running Wolf, Reno Pal; 14-15 year, 95 lb. division—Maurice Linton, Tacoma defeated Joe Bales, Kelso.

In the 14-15 year, 100 lb. division—Terry Calleja, Solano defeated Alfredo Anzaldua, Desert Horse; 14-15 year 119 pound Gilbert Siller, Lower Valley Boxing Club defeated Tim Bill, Warriors; 14-15 year, 132 pound division—Guy Leyva, Reno Jets defeated Marcus Rios, Tacoma; 14-15, 139 lb. division—Rick Peterson, Springfield defeated Manual Melendez, Warriors.

In the 16 year-and-over, 119 lb. division—Jerry Sam, Warm Spring Police Department Boxing Club defeated Ray Totus, Jr., Granger Boxing Club, 16 year-and-over, 125 lb. division—Kird BoCook, Morning Star defeated Duan Hegge, Desert Horse; 16 year and over, 132 lb. Lawrence Caldera, Warm Springs Boxing Club defeated Luther Brown, Klamath Falls; 16 year and older, 139 lb. division

Shane Shaffer, West Eugene defeated Richard LeFever, Kelso, 16 year-and-over, 147 lb. division—Terry Chocktoot, Klamath Falls defeated Guy Herkshan, Warm Springs Police Department.

Uncontested champions include: Junior 10-11 year division—70 pound Reynolds Allen, Warm Springs Boxing Club; 75 lb. Scott Holper, Vancouver Elks; 106 lb. Ronnie Sampson, Warriors; 125 lb. Mervin Govenor, Warm Springs Police Department; 139 lb. John Cozad, Capitol Boxing Club.

Senior Junior Olympics 14-15 year division—85 lb. Ande Knapp, Tacoma; 125 lb. Martin Ozyno, Lower Valley; 156 lb. Marcelus Allen, Knott Street Boxing Club.

Senior 16 division—112 lb. Steve Keller, Kelso; 156 lb. Carlos Adams, Knott Street; 165 lb. Gordon Monk, Tacoma; Heavyweight Melvin Richey, Knott Street.

Outstanding boxers were selected by a committee appointed by the boxing officials. The outstanding boxers include: 10-11 year division, Jason Hargrave, Morning Star; 12-13 division—John Newton, Kelso 14-15 year division, Maurice Dinton, Tacoma; Open Senior, Guy Herkshan, Warm Springs. Guy Herkshan was also given the Sportsmanship award.

The team trophies went to: 1st—Kelso and 2nd—Tacoma.

The next scheduled tournaments are the Northwest Meet of Champions, March 27-28 in Albany, Oregon followed by the Seattle All-Indian Boxing Tournament on April

Warm Springs Boxing Club