High school rodeo association

With the spring weather comes the rodeo season and the High School Rodeo Association is getting ready to go into full swing. For high school students who have aspirations of becoming a rodeo star, this is a good start into the world of rodeo.

The Oregon High School Rodeo Association is accepting membership of students who are under the age of twenty and are enrolled in an accredited school and are in good standing with the school. It is not required that the students be a member of a rodeo club at their school. Students must meet the grade requirement as set by the Oregon State Athletic Association.

Applications to join the association are available by writing to Bonnie Segers, Sec-Treas.; 11800 N.W. 10th St.; Terrebonne, Oregon 97760. Dues are $45 a year and this includes $12 for National dues, $20 for insurance and $13 for state dues.

It is important to get your application into the association so you will be eligible to enter any of the sanctioned rodeos. The applications must be post-marked 30 days prior to any of the sanctioned shows. A copy of your grades must accompany your application.

The OHSRA is an organization designed to give you people of high school age an opportunity to gain and develop rodeo skills through rodeo competition with their peers.

The season for OHSRA will begin during the first weekend of April with a rodeo at Eugene, Oregon—the Emerald Empire High School Rodeo

Events featured at the rodeos will be bareback riding, saddle bronc, bull riding, calf roping, steer wrestling, team roping, boys cutting, barrel racing, pole bending, goat tying, breakaway roping and girls cutting.

Where the Action is...

St. Jude Mini Run-Walk

The fund raising event planned for the first of May has increased its agenda from the bike-a-thon to include a Mini-run/walk. It was decided by the St. Jude committee that to limit the day to just bike riders would keep many people from participating.

The program for the day will include the original bike-athon as planned along Tenino Road. The riders will ride a consecutive 2 mile run as many times as they wish. The riders will be responsible for picking up the monies donated by their sponsors and turning in the money within ten days after the scheduled ride. Added to the program will be the Mini-run/walk. A $3 donation will be charged for each person entered but an entire family may enter for $6.

There will be check points for riders, walkers and runners where beverages will be served. If there are any groups interested in managing a refreshment stand please contact Elina Langnese at 553-1161, ext. 241.

The Police Officers Association has donated $50 for prizes. Prizes will be drawn for throughout the event.

Everyone is welcome to attend whether to watch or participate in the Fun Day.

6th Annual

WSCC Teen Club

Número uno in Nespelem during the weekend of March 13th and 14th was the WSCC/Teen club. Jerome Davis played up to his best and earned the Most Valuable Player award.

Also in attendance were the 4-H War Chiefs. In double overtime against Nespelem Log House, the Chiefs secured third place, 68-66. The winning basket was sunk by Raphael Caldera in the final moments of the game.

Tournament all-star awards went to James "Buckwheat" Scott and David Crowe. Tim Kneeland was nick-named Mr. Hustle. Sportsmanship recognition was accepted by Nelson Zomont and his 4-H team.

On March 21 and 22, the WSCC/Teen Club hosted a 16-under, four-team boys and girls basketball tournament. Finishing first for both boys and girls was the host team, War-Chiefs—second place, and Omak-third place.

Chiloquin girls finished 2nd and 4-H girls third.

Jerome Davis and Lana Shike were named most valuable players. Jerome scored 42 points against Omak and 33 points against the Chiefs. Ray Caldera and Lori Case were tournament Mr. and Ms. Hustle.
