

Students, teacher awarded for citizenship

The class citizenship award for the month of April was presented to Donna Rodger's first grade class.

Fifth grade teacher Harry Phillips was awarded with a plaque for his contributions to the Warm Springs school.

Seven students were awarded with citizenship certificates for the month of April. Everett Miller (upper right) presented them to the five students in attendance that day. Pictured are: (left to right) Vanessa Orange, John Katchia, Richard Suppah, Joseph Culps, and Esther Lucio. Ina Jim and Jason Hintsala are not pictures.

Once again, citizenship certificates were presented to Warm Springs Elementary students who displayed positive qualities of good behavior and leadership during the month of April. Tektronix plan supervisor Everett Miller presented the awards.

Certificates went to Jason Hintsala, kindergarten; Ina Jim, 1st grade; Joseph Culps, 2nd grade; Vanessa Orange, 3rd grade; Richard Suppah, 4th grade; Richard Suppah, 4th grade; Esther Lucio, 5th grade; and John Katchia, 6th grade.

The class citizenship award for the month was presented to Donna Roger's first grade class. These students are the graduating class of 1994. pointed out Warm Springs elementary principal John Trujillo. An award was also given to a deserving adult on the elementary staff who has made a great contribution to both the school and the Warm Springs community. Fifth grade teacher Harry Phillips was the recipient of the plaque. Phillips has worked in the 509-J school district for 17 years at both Simnasho school and Warm Springs elementary. He is also a Warm Springs 4-H leader and a volunteer firefighter.

Spring clean-up Getting the yard looking good

Getting the yard looking good begins with eliminating litter and weeds that have accumulated through the winter months. With the weather turning mild it's much easier to get outside and get things done.

To help get the community looking better and foster the spirit of working together the Housing Department under the direction of Elton Greeley has been recruiting volunteers to get things moving. Three days in May have been set aside as clean-up days, May 21, 22 and 24.

Volunteers will be picking up items both large and small destined for the dump on the first clean-up day. If any community member has such garbage he need only call Greeley, Neda Wesley or Anna Hurtado at 553-1161, ext. 250 and someone will be there on May 21.

On the remaining two clean-up days community members are encouraged to work on their yards, getting spring chores done or started. Greeley hopes community members will be prompted to join in, saying, "Hopefully people in the homes will clean up litter and remove weeds."

Community members may call any of the following people with questions or to offer their assistance in the spring clean-up: Jerry Huff, Fred Muniz, Walt Sixkiller, Harrison Davis, Papo Cruz, Harry Hintsala, Helen Robinson, Faye Waheneka, Herb Graybael, Don Schmidt, or the Housing Department.

Klamath's to receive monies in settlement

Members of the Klamath tribe will be receiving payment for a proposed compromise settlement which was agreed upon May 1 at a meeting held in Klamath Falls, Oregon.

The settlement, which includes five different claims relating to forestry matters, is for $16.5 million. The payment will go to the 2,133 people whose names appeared on the final role in 1957, or their heirs. Each person will receive approximately $7,000. Attorney and distribution fees will be paid out of the $16.5 million.

The Klamath's have received three other payments since 1964. A fourth payment, concluded in 1975, has not been made because of its small size. Instead of making payment, it was invested.

According to Jim Weddel, Portland Area Office Tribal Operations Manager, 1,447 of the 2,133 on the final role are still living. Of those 1,477, 532 attended the general meeting held at a grade school in Klamath Falls. 250 voted against settling, 262 voted in favor of the settlement.

Payment of the claim will not be made until the Secretary of the Interior and the Court of Claims approves the settlement.