Basketball:

Girls team "Morning Star" places second

A local girl's basketball team under the name of "Morning Star," placed second in a tournament held in Reno, Nevada, recently. The 19 and under tournament drew teams from California, Utah, Oregon and Nevada.

Reno, the host team, won the tournament beating the determined Warm Springs girls in the finals. The local team consisted of Lorraine Suppah, Joyce Suppah, Lana Shike, Anita Bryant, Joni Wallulatum and Cinda Heath. The team was coached by Enos Herkshan with assistant Loren Suppah.

The team contributed two All-stars to the tournament team and they were Lorraine Suppah and Lana Shike. The girls brought home trophies for second place and the traveling trophy. Team members boasted their No. 1 fan, Margaret Suppah, and other team relatives who also made the trip to Reno.
