

Fairtime .....

A time to show wares, talents, have fun

Fair activities include the livestock exhibition. Daycare children get a hands-on experience with some of the contestants. From left to right the children are Kelly Muniz, Maria Colazo and Lynn Chavez.

Willow Sequana Queneke helps fill a bucket with water during the fireman's muster following the fair parade. Linda Muhlenberg cheers her on.

Miss Warm Springs, Lyda Scott, joins in the parade activities. She was one of 90 entries in the August 7 parade.

Spilyay Tymoo photos
by
Marsha Shewczyk

All children seem to enjoy the carnival rides most. Daycare children and their parents and teachers raised money to be able to attend the fair. All enjoyed the day's outing.

An Indian dancing demonstration drew a large crowd to the area at the fair grounds set aside for such activities. Leading the dancing are Alfreda Mitchell and Max Mitchell followed by Minnie Johnson and Carlos Calica.