(The way it is)

Letter to the editor Help for "Hot Dog" appreciated

To the Editor:

On behalf of my daughter, Eliza Greene, better known as, "Hot Dog" I wish to acknowledge the persons whom I will forever be indebted to. The support both financially and morally gave her determination beyond reason to achieve her goal. Eliza had vigorously been in gymnastics an activity she said would build up her strength and had won an outstanding performance award for the district at age 12.

Donations from my family prompted us to fund raise to get Eliza to her final lesson in Trick Riding to Bakersfield, California. I completely and humbly credit Spilyay photographer-reporter Pat Leno for her unselfish sacrifice of time on Holidays todo write ups and take photographs which eventually led to financial support from family and friends. March 23rd Eliza graduated from Lucky Star Stables and received her certification few people have accomplished.

My whole hearted thanks include Perry Greene family, Elton Greeley, Aunt Liz & Donny, Harold Greene, Elvina Switzler & Beulah, Grant & Emily Wahneka, Charlotte & Enos Herkshan, Charlotte & Ray Shike, Education committee on behalf of W.S. Confederated Tribes, Claude Puckett, her prime sponsor and Arlie & Bud Holden for cash donations.

Eliza's ambition and her love for life brought her through a traumatic time when she went through open heart surgery last June at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. I truly thank God for her outstanding team of Dr.'s and the expertise of her post operative nursing car. I humbly say thanks to Olney Patt Sr. & family, for financial support during the crucial hours for this enabled us to be near her. The many calls and floral contributions were an inspiration and will be a constant reminder to Eliza in order to receive love, one must give love. Now, I will live for everyday with my daughter and hope her efforts will someday make us proud of her. Thank you for caring.

Driver robbed on highway

James Wolfe, Kah-Nee-Ta bus driver reported to the Warm Springs Police Department that he was robbed of nearly $800 in an armed robbery near mile post 108 on highway 26 on August 25. Wolfe told investigators he was returning to Warm Springs following a trip to Madras where he had cashed his paycheck and the paychecks of two other Kah-Nee-Ta employees. Wolfe said he noticed a woman along side the road waving a gas can and he stopped to see if he could be of assistance. According to police reports, two families approached the van and said they had run out of gas. A male, holding a gun, approached Wolfe and demanded Wolfe turn over all the money in his possession.

After taking the money, the man removed the keys from the Kah-Nee-Ta bus and he instructed Wolfe to remain in the vehicle. The three robbers left the area in a red and black 1969 or 1970 Ford LTD heading west on highway 26. Wolfe later hitched a ride to Warm Springs to report the incident. He told police the three assailants were caucasian and in their mid-twenties.

The robbery is still under investigation by the Jefferson County sheriffs department and the Tribal investigators. According to Jefferson County deputy Ed Larsen, the law enforcement agencies have been unable to locate the car or the suspects.

Tuesday, October 12..... Exercise your rights

We need to stress the importance of your vote in the upcoming adoption referendum. Not only will the rights of the adoptees be at stake, but your rights, as eligible voters, will also be on the line.

It is the discretion of the Tribal Council when an adoption referendum will be held. There is no set time for such a referendum, only when the Council feels an adoption is necessary.

The tribal Vital Statistics department is involved with an adoption from the very beginning. When Council approaches them about the number of applicants, Vital Stats is on the go until the election.

For this referendum Vital Statistics has been working since June, interviewing applicants, qualifying blood-degree records and checking and double-checking all information. Once all the information was verified, the names of the qualifying applicants were given to us, here at Spilyay Tymoo, so that photographs could be taken.

October 12 will culminate all the work that has gone into this referendum. Again, we can not stress enough the importance of your vote, whether it be for or against. Fifty-percent of all voters, aged 21 or married, are eligible to vote. If 50% of the voters do not cast their ballots on October 12, the elections will be invalid.

On pages 5 through 8, photographs are shown of the 48 people who have met all adoption requirements for the adoption referendum on October 12.

Correction

It was erroneously reported in August 25 edition of Spilyay Tymoo that the Title IV Part A parent committee meeting was to be held September 4. The meeting will be held Tuesday, September 14 at the Community Center beginning at 7:30 p.m. We apologize for any confusion this may have caused.
