

Warm Springs elementary—

Good citizens receive recognition

Staff person for the month of October at Warm Springs elementary is Lorraine Lavenik. She is a teacher aid at the ERC trailer and has worked at the elementary school for six years.

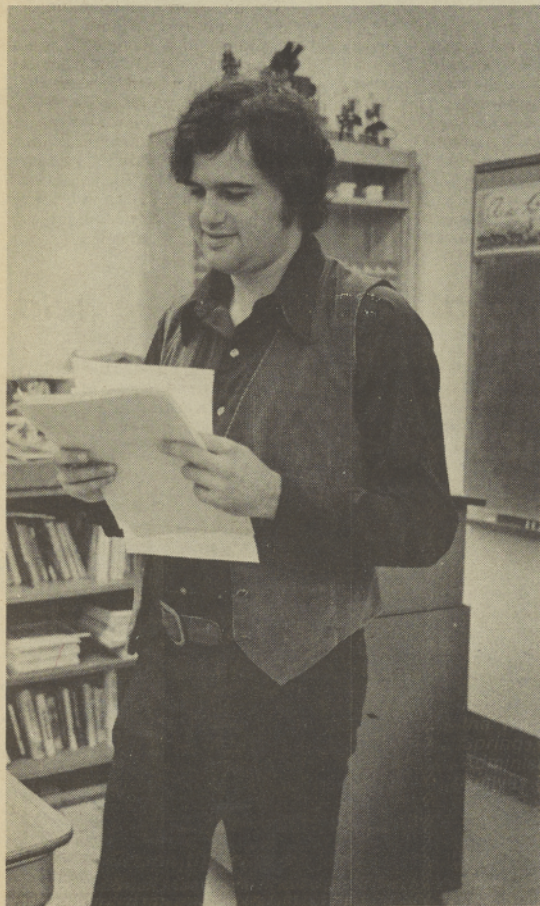

Students receiving citizenship certificates for the month of October include: (back row, left to right) Lori Switzler, sixth grade; Joselyn Moses, fifth; (front row) Essie Lawson, third; Ellis Langley, first; Chris Crane, second. Jennie Higgins, kindergarten and Grant Clements, Jr., fourth grade, are not pictured. Vital Statistics department manager Madeline Queahpama presented the certificates.

During the school assembly each month certain children displaying outstanding citizenship qualities are recognized. A class is also selected as group showing responsibility, helpfulness and other qualities of good citizens. The month of September found Mr. Phillips's sixth grade class exemplifying good citizens. October's class citizenship award goes to Dawn Smith's first grade class. Classes are rewarded with one hour's skating at the Community Center.

Fifth grade teacher Denver Sensibaugh was selected as September staff person of the month. Sensibaugh has taught at Warm Springs elementary for five years.

Citizenship certificates at Warm Springs elementary for the month of September were awarded to: (back row, left to right) Ricky Smith, sixth grade; Serina Winishut, fifth; (front row) Orlando Stevens, third; Isaak Esquiro, first; Morningstar Johnson, fourth; Vangelique Jack, second. Kelli Palmer, kindergarten, is not pictured. The awards were presented to students by Uren Leonard from the Warm Springs Planning Department.

Spilyay Tymoo photos by Shewczyk