Indian foresters in demand

(Submitted to Spilyay for publication)

Mr. Delbert Frank, Sr.
Chairman Tribal Council
P.O. Box C
Warm Springs, Oregon 97761

Dear Mr. Frank:

We have reviewed your proposal for a forestry technician training program which was forwarded from the Central Office. The concept of holding this training on the reservation in conjunction with Central Oregon Community College has many advantages and should be supported. We are pleased that the Central Office, Division of Forestry, can furnish supplies and equipment even though no funds are currently available for the tuition.

As you are aware, the Portland Area Office, Forestry Branch, began funding an Indian Forester Intern Program in 1980 with the initial enrollment set at ten. Unfortunately, there were an additional 12 applicants that were qualified but could not be accepted due to funding limitations. Since this Intern Program has been highly successful, with five out of the ten already completing their academic requirements for conversion to the 460 Forester Classification, and because of the great need for Indian Foresters, we must give the Intern Program first priority if any additional forestry education funds become available.

We regret to say, therefore, that your regular education programs funds are all that are available at this time, but we wholeheartedly support and applaud your effort since it is by providing appropriate education at all levels and in all areas that the greatest progress on reservations will be achieved.

Sincerely,
Acting Assistant Area Director

Show cancelled

Dear Folks,

Due to the lack of participants, I deeply regret that I am forced to cancel my scheduled show dates on the Indian mountain man shows. In the 36 years I've worked in American Indian projects, this truly would have been a wonderful show for all Indian Charities as well as for all American Indians.

I will be advising all concerned of a future spring show date.

No more wood please

The Senior Citizen Program will not be buying any more wood until further notice.

From the high school counselor

by Ron Pinkham

Happy Thanksgiving to all parents and students!! I am very happy that many parents visited with the high school teachers and me during Parent Conference Day. It was very beautiful to see many faces at the school. It will be extremely beneficial to your child in the long run.

Parents, I would like to remind you about becoming involved with your children as much as possible with their education. It shows concern and caring, especially for those students who may be entering "Alternative Education." After the quarter, more students may be placed into Alternative Education due to lack of attendance, short credits, and health. Parents must know what Alternative Education is and how it will benefit their son or daughter. Much encouragement is needed for the Indian youth to keep going and to "hang in there" no matter how difficult it may seem. When a parent is involved, the road to a diploma may not be as difficult as it appears.
