

Wrestlers having good season

With a 12-5 standing this season the Madras high wrestling team is showing promise. Seven of its members are Warm Springs youth.

"We're a young team. The kids have really come on well this year. It's probably the best season we've had in years," comments wrestling coach Jerry Byrne.

Losing the match against McMinnville January 14 was no indication of what the team had been doing says Byrne. Mac Hi's skill overwhelmed the team. "The kids more or less figured they were going to lose"

Warm Springs team members include Jason Smith, Troy Smith, Steve Smith, Paul Henderson, Jason Palmer, Gunner Johnson and Jimmy George.

The next local game at Culver January 29. The time of the match is 12:00 noon.

Legislation Approves Land Claim Distribution has come up with includes those born on or prior to January 1, 1983 and were alive on the date of the enactment of the act.

The thing that is different from any other bill is that it will also pay dividends to those who have deceased since February 18, 1975.

The next proviso would apply to those who have not participated in the Malheur Judgement Award Claim or the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act and who have not participated in any other judgement award claim.

It is awarded to those who have not shared.

Q: Who determines eligibility?
A: The Bureau will do that. We will have to work real close with Vital Statistics. They have a printout of those eligible. We will have to review that.

The area office in Portland will be the primary ones to do that. They know who participated in the Malheur, Alaska or any other judgement claims.

They will review what this Tribe submits and go through these from the total enrollment to make sure no one is left off that should receive. They would also make sure those that are eligible haven't participated in any other judgement.

Q: How will the distribution be made?

A: It will be paid by check sent through the mail. This judgement will be paid to those adults 18 and over and to those that have no need for programming from this office. There will be no reductions of this payment. It will be paid in total.

Q: How much will each entitled person receive?

A: About $1,200. This is not subject to tax.

Q: How are minors affected?

A: For all minors we have to set up Individual Indian Money accounts. Their share will be put in these.

This payment will differ from payments the Tribe pays. This money, the minor share, cannot be used by families for living expenses. The money will be held until the minor is 18 years old in this case. That's the law.

The special account will draw interest until the minor reaches 18 years of age at which time he can receive the money.

Q: Can descendants of persons claiming money from other judgements be awarded money from this settlement?
A: If the descendant did not share in previous judgements. It is awarded to those who have not shared.

Public Law 97-436 — Distribution of Warm Springs Judgement Award Claim
