

Lincoln's Birthday Powwow hostesses selling tickets

Stacey Leonard

The 14-year old Wasco/Warm Springs/Yakima is the daughter of Uren and Gwen Leonard. Stacy attends Madras High School and is a freshman this year. She plays freshman basketball and volleyball. She enjoys traveling, playing her clarinet and participating in sports. She is looking forward to dancing at the powwow as she feels she has been away from traditional dancing for too long. She is an enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs.

Gayleen Adams

The daughter of Myrtle Adams, Gayleen is an eighth grader at Madras Junior high school. She lives with her grandparents Reginald and Beatrice Winishut in West Hills. The 13-year old miss lists basketball, volleyball, gymnastics and meeting people as special interests. She is looking forward to being a part of the annual Lincoln's Birthday Powwow February 11, 12 and 13. Gayleen is an enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs.

Brigette Scott

An eighth grader at Madras Junior High School, Brigette is active in Culture Club and advanced band. She plays bass clarinet in the band. Brigette is an avid horseback rider. She also enjoys powwows, jogging, gymnastics and volleyball. She is the youngest daughter of Gordon and Brenda Scott. Her grandparents are Nick and Viola Kalama and Elmer Scott Sr. Brigette is looking forward to helping at the powwow and being a part of the celebration.

Monica Wahnetah

Monica is the 13 year old daughter of Katherine Jackson of Warm Springs. Monica attends Madras Junior High School and is in the eighth grade. She is active in the school's Culture Club and sports. She is a member of 4-H in Warm Springs. Monica is the granddaughter of Isabelle Keo of Simnasho and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wahnetah of North Caroline. Being a part of the powwow means a great deal to her as it is a goal of Monica's to assist the Lincoln's Birthday Powwow Committee in making the powwow bigger and better.

Each of the hostesses will be in the community selling raffle tickets for the powwow. They will be at each of the events sponsored by the powwow. Support the powwow by buying tickets from Gayleen, Stacey, Brigette and Monica.

Man held in shooting

A shooting incident, in the early-morning hours of January 15, seriously injured Richard Smith, 30, of Warm Springs. Smith was allegedly shot by a younger brother, Grant Smith, Jr.

The younger Smith was arrested, arraigned and charged on two separate counts of assault in Federal Court in Portland January 17. The assault charges brought against Smith were: assault with a dangerous weapon and assault resulting in serious bodily injury.

Smith is being held in Portland by the U.S. Marshall. The investigation is being conducted by the BIA Special Investigator's office in Warm Springs.

Richard Smith is in the intensive care unit at St. Charles Medical Center in Bend and is listed in serious condition.

Car/truck accident claims one

A car/truck accident, which occurred January 18 at the Highway 97/Prineville junction near Madras, claimed the life of Edwin Jay Thomas, 26, of Warm Springs. Ron Holliquilla Jr, 18, was seriously injured in the accident. Henry Martin Kalama III, 23, also of Warm Springs, was charged with manslaughter in the second degree.

Kalama allegedly went through the stop sign at the junction crossing into the southbound lane of highway 97 then swerved into the northbound, over corrected, and went into a broadside skid. A single-trailer semi, driven by Richard Steven of Phoenix, Arizona, collided with the rear end of the Kalama vehicle. Holliquilla and Kalama were both thrown from the car.

Steven received only minor injuries. Holliquilla was released from St. Charles Medical Center January 20.

Security was set for Kalama at $3,000. Bail was posted January 20 and he was released on a security release. Kalama has been arraigned for indictment for Monday, January 24 for the manslaughter charge.
