Over 800 cast ballots in Council elections

Mike Clements

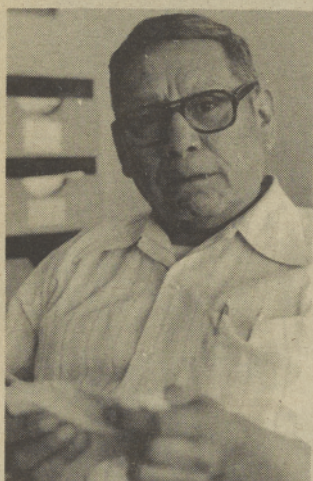

Zane Jackson

Bernice Mitchell

Larry Calica

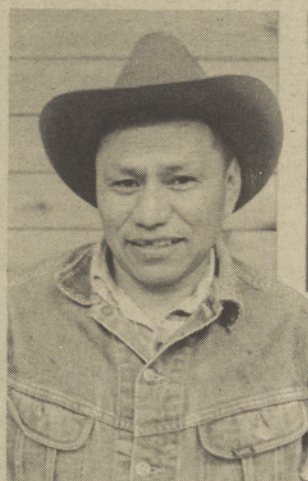

Delbert Frank, Sr.

by Donna Behrend

Over 60% of the registered tribal voters cast their ballots April 1 for new Council members. As in the 1980 Council elections, there was a tie in the Seekseequa District. The Agency and Simnasho Districts re-elected four of the current councilmen.

Re-elected in the Agency District were Zane Jackson with 255 votes, Michael Clements with 131 votes and Bernice Mitchell with 125 votes.

In the Simnasho District, Jacob Frank, Sr. was elected with 118 votes, Delbert Frank, Sr. was re-elected with 91 votes and Larry Calica was elected with 87 votes. Both Jacob Jacob Frank, Sr.

Frank, Sr. and Calica have served on Tribal Council in past years.

Elected in the Seekseequa District was Ellen Johnson with 32 votes. Geraldine Jim and Vernon Henry tied with 28 votes each. Those eligible to vote in the Seekseequa District must vote again on April 22 to break the tie between Jim and Henry.

A total of 810 ballots were tallied for this election including absentee ballots. The following is a breakdown of how many votes each candidate received.
