

Community Center plans lots of fun for summer

The Community Center began its summer fun program June 21. Activities have been planned for children of all ages.

Children are requested to wear sturdy shoes to all activities. No thongs or sandals will be permitted on any of the field trips. Glass containers are also discouraged as they present a hazard.

Open gym is 8:00 to 8:30 a.m. Adult's open gym time is 12 noon to 1:00 p.m.

A waiver is required for use of the weight room. Children seven years and younger are not allowed in the weight room.

Schedules for the various activities are available at the Community Center. In many cases class sizes are limited so signing up early is important.

Swim lessons will be held with a certified red cross instructor for pre-schoolers, beginners, advanced beginners and intermediate swimmers.

All swimmers must supply their own suits and towel. Buses will be transporting the children to the Kah-Nee-Ta swimming pool for the lessons.

Field trips are also scheduled as a summertime activity. Children wishing to participate in any or all of the Friday field trips must have a program permission slip from a parent or guardian. The forms are available from the Community Center office.

There will be a fee of $10 to cover transportation costs for the field trips. This fee will entitle a child to participate in any or all of the field trips.

Children participating in the Friday field trips must sign up by Thursday noon of each week. Children must be six years of age and over.

The trips include: June 24-Bear Springs; July 1-Cove State Park; July 8-Reindeer Ranch, Sahalle Falls, Suttle

Lake; July 15-High Desert Museum, Bend; July 22-Trout Lake; July 29-Enchanted Forest, Salem; August 5-Bald Peter; August 12-Portland Zoo.

Daily activities for pre-school children include an assortment of craft making and projects. Some of the activities include: "Let's play," "Let's paint," "Water Play," "Animals, animals," "Our big backyard," "Cookie Monster Club," "Story Time," "Paper mache," "Embroidery," "Puppet Tyme," "Pinwheels, pinwheels," and "Beyond eating."

Co-sponsored with the Cultural/Heritage department cultural activities for pre-school children include "Tell me a legend," "Basketry," and "Being Indian..."

Outdoor activities for children beyond pre-school age varies. Some of the activities include: "Individual or Partner games," ages 9 to 13; "Individual or Partner Game," ages 6 to 8; "Active group games," all ages; "Bicycle fun," all ages; "Obstacle runs," ages 6 to 8; "Obstacle runs," ages 9 to 13; "Team games," all ages; "Swimming at the pump-house," ages five and older, "Rafting," ten and older with swim skills.

Other activities through the summer weeks at the Community Center include: "Warm up," all ages; "Game room," six and older; "Wiffle ball," all ages; "Tumbling," six and older, "Rollerskating," three and older; "Gymnastics," six and older; "Dodgeball," six and older; "Flickerball," six and older; "Dodgeball," six and older; "Dance," three and older; "Basketball," six and older; "Weight training," nine and older; "Bowling," six and older; "Open arts and crafts," six and older; "special craft projects," six and older, "embroidery," eight and older.

Movies during the summer will be shown every Wednesday at 8:00 p.m. The schedule is as follows: June 22 "Billie;" June 29-"Starbird and Sweet William;" July 6-"Cinderella;" July 13-"The clown and the kids;" July 20-"Gas house kids go west;" July 27-"The clown and the kids;" July 27-"Silence;" August 3-"In search of Noah's Ark;" August 10-"Tom Thumb." The charge for movies is 75 cents.

All age children can participate in a bicycle rodeo Wednesday, July 6 beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Bingo for children ages five to seven will be held Tuesday, July 12 from 3 to 3:45 p.m.

A family event is grubby day on Wednesday, July 13. Participants are asked to bring something for the soup kettle by 10:00 a.m. Lunch is served at 12:00 p.m. with a 75 cent charge.

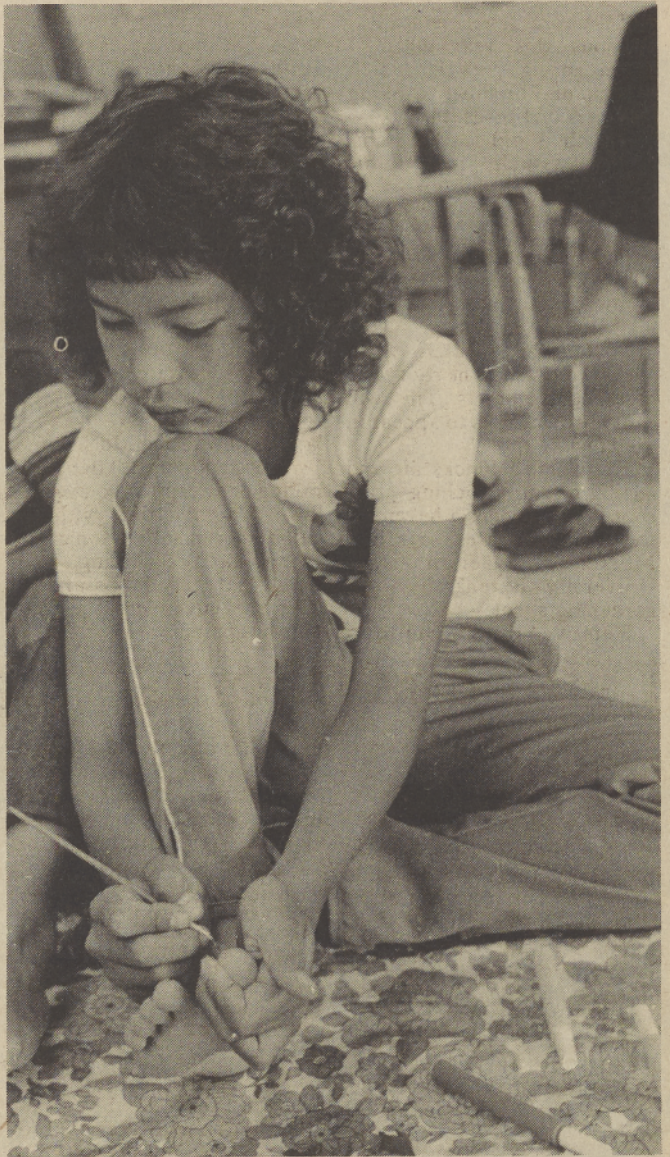

Wednesday, July 20 is "I scream, you scream" ice cream day. The community center will furnish the ice cream. Everyone is asked to bring a topping. This ice cream party begins at 2:00 p.m.

Clowning around for children two to seven will be held Tuesday, July 26 from 2 to 2:45 p.m.. Children will have their faces painted by clowns.

A dog show will be held Wednesday, July 27. Bathing and grooming will begin at 10:00 a.m. The dog show begins at 12 noon.

A bubble blowing party will be held from 3 to 3:45 p.m., Thursday, July 28 for children ages three to seven.

Open house to display arts and crafts and activities is scheduled for Wednesday, August 3. A luncheon will be prepared and served by children of the summer recreation program at 12 noon.

Spilyay Tymoo photo by Shewczyk

A big toe decorating contest drew children to the Community center June 23. This is one of the many special events planned for children during the summer at the Community Center.

The cost is $2.50 for adults, $1, 11 to 3 p.m. Wednesday, August 10.

Thursday, August 4 events include a water play day from 1 to 3 p.m.; a watermelon feed at 3:30 p.m. and a tentatively scheduled baseball jamboree and potluck at 4:30 p.m.

A hike and picnic for ages six and older takes place from Children will exhibit artwork at the Jefferson County fair from August 10-14.

For details on these summer programs call the Community Center at 553-1161, ext. 243 and 244.

Perfect attendance students treated to day at Kah-Nee-Ta

Spilyay Tymoo photo by Shewczyk

Twenty-nine Warm Springs elementary students were treated to a day at Kah-Nee-Ta sponsored by Tribal Council for their record of perfect attendance during the 1982-83 school year.

Students who received recognition for perfect attendance are: Kindergarten-Cimmeron Tufti; First grade-Alfredo Colazo, Ellis Langley, Frank Reese, Jennifer Tufti; Second grade-Taylor Arthur, Vangelique Jack and Dale Warner.

Students receiving a day at Kah-Nee-Ta for perfect attendance from the third grade include: Joel Colazo, Eric Craig, Joseph Culps, Vernon Tufti, Marti Rai Wells; Fourth grade-Jacob Coochise, Rhonda Ike, Morningingstar Johnson, Anthony Valde; Fifth grade-Kendrick Arthur, Jocelyn Moses, Richard Suppah, Thurman Tufti, Raymond Wells and Josephine Wyman.

Sixth grade students with perfect attendance include Saphronia Coochise, Shauna Craig, Tana Sixkiller, Ricky Smith, Delton Trimble and Anthony Wells.