Students selected for course

Twenty-one Northwest Indian students with health career interests have been selected by the Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board to participate in the 1984 summer enrichment program at Portland State University in Portland, Oregon. This six-week program begins June 16, 1984 and ends with commencement exercises on July 27, 1984.

Among those students chosen for the summer enrichment program is Alexandria Smith of Warm Springs. Her health career interest is in the field of physical therapy.

Lamanite Week March 17-23

Lamanite Week 1984 will be held at Brigham Young University at Provo, Utah March 19-23. It is sponsored by the Multicultural Education Department and Associated Studies.

Several types of activities during each day of the week starting with one of two performances by the Lamanite Generation and presentations by the Intertribal choir.

Programs by Hispanics, Polynesians and Indians will be featured as well as a Cultural Food Fair; Miss Indian BYU contestants speech contest; a fun run; a powwow and an outdoor cultural fashion show by Indians, Polynesians and Hispanics during the five-day event.

There will also be a Lamanite Banquet and reception to honor Lamanite Generation Director Janie Thompson, the Miss Indian BYU pageant and coronation and a dance.
