

Graduates honored at banquet

Education Committee member Irene Towe pinned a corsage on 1984 Madras High School graduate Allie Smith at the graduation banquet June 11. Nearly 60 high school, college vocational training and GED graduates were honored.

"Living to learn; learning to live" was the motto of the 1984 graduating class of Madras High School. There were 113 members of the class, 32 of whom were honored at a banquet at the Agency Longhouse June 11.

The following is a list of those Madras High School graduates honored at the banquet.

Daniel Brisbois, Anita Bryant, Gaylynn Charley, Ron Clements, Kristin Conner, Jimmy George, Urban Gibson, Myrna Greene, Dana Hurtado, Cyril Jim, Delford Johnson, Jr., Morris Johnson, Rosalind Johnson, Daniel Lawrence, Lonita Leno, Brigitte Macy, Sophie Lynn Manion, Sylvester, Sahme, Lisa Sixkiller, Alexandria Smith, Dena Smith, Jamesina Smith, Lois Squiemphen, Mark Stacona, Sandra Tanewasha, Clarice Tewee, Jewell VanPelt, Gina Walker, Joni Wallulatum, Darcy Webb, Travis Wells and Lisa Zamora.

Lena Ike graduated from Chemawa Indian School. Althea Henry and Leland Thompson, Jr. both graduated from Inter-Mountain Indian School and Janell Smith graduated from Sherman Indian School. Tommy Keo graduated from Wasco County Union High School and Marcus Mosely graduated from Beaverton High School.

Also honored at the banquet were those who completed their GEDs. They were Rhoda Anderson, Charlene Calica, Sandra Frank, Shari Macy, Evette Patt, Bertson Simtustus, Lisa Smith and Ruth Tias.

Also honored at the banquet were other graduates—those who graduated from college, junior college or vocational training. Donald Courtney graduated from the University of Las Vegas. David Courtney graduated from Central Oregon Community College as did Valerie Squiemphen. Wendell Jim graduated from Washington State University. Olivia Kirk graduated from

Spilyay Tymoo photo by Behrend

Graduation banquet helps busily prepared fruit and vegetables plates as well as many other tasty additions for the dinner.

Portland State University and James Florendo, Jr. graduated from the University of Oregon.

Those who completed vocational training were Vernita Adams, Easton

Aguilar, Olney Patt, Jr., Gene Sahme, Donney Scott and Roger Stwyer.

We, at Spilyay Tymoo, congratulate all 1984 graduates.

Students recognized

The last day assembly at Warm Springs Elementary proved to be special for students recognized for achievements throughout the year and at special events. Awards were presented to both students and staff.

Library awards, track meet awards and thank you awards to teacher aids were part of the presentations.

Twenty-three students received a day at Kah-Nee-Ta along with certificates for perfect attendance during the 1983-84 school year. These students include: kindergarten—Marlen Miller, Travil Miller, Justin Tom; First grade—Flint Scott, Cimmeron Tufti, second—Davis Boise, Kathleen Yallup; third—Vangi Jack, Obedt Moody, Angeline Yallup; fourth—Eric Craig, Jason Rabbie, Daniels

Samuels, Merlin Tom, Alex Tufti; fifth—Otis Johnson, Corbett Tom; sixth—Richard Brisbois, Wayne Miller, Tyrone Smith, Thurman Squiemphen, Josephine Wyman, Rhonda Johnson.

Citizenship awards for the Month of May were also presented to: Stacy Licon, kindergarten; Matthew Junge, first; Jason Hintsala, second; Jolene Hintsala, third; Ron Palmer, fourth; Arnette Saludo, fifth and Ryan Eagleheart, sixth. The class receiving the class citizenship award for the month was Mary Soliz's second grade class. Mr. Jeff Henry received the staff award for the month.

The assembly continued at the Agency Longhouse with a powwow for students and community members.

X-country run set

A cross-country run will be held the morning of June 23 beginning at the Warm Springs Community Center parking lot. Both a 2.2 and a 5.4 mile run are scheduled.

Registration begins at 7:00 am with the run starting at 8:00 am. Cost is $8.00 which includes a T-shirt.

For more information contact run coordinator Jerry Sampson.

Get up and exercise

Early morning exercise is still going strong. Anyone interested in starting their day with exercise is invited to join us at any time. The class meets in the Community Center gymnasium from 6:30 am until 7:15 am. Wear comfortable, cool clothing and supportive shoes.

Spilyay Tymoo photo by Shewczyk

ATTENDANCE RECOGNIZED—Twenty-three students having a perfect attendance record for the school year were recognized at the Warm Springs Elementary last day assembly. These students were awarded by Tribal Council, also, with a special day at Kah-Nee-Ta.