Letters to the Editor—

Plan to attend

To the Editor,

As the beginning of the Centennial Year celebration for Haskell Indian Junior College swiftly approaches, all Lawrence citizens look forward to the many special activities planned during the 1984-85 school year. These Centennial events promise to recognize Haskell's many achievements during its first century and will focus attention on Haskell both now and in the future.

One of the most anticipated events of the upcoming year will be Haskell's celebration scheduled for October 12-14, 1984. We know that you and the members of your tribe have been invited to join in those festivities by participating in the Homecoming Parade on Saturday, October 13.

As representatives of the City of Lawrence and the Lawrence Chamber of Commerce we would also like to extend to you and your tribe a special invitation to come to Lawrence and take part in Haskell's Centennial Year Homecoming.

We look forward to welcoming you to our community.

Sincerely,

Pete Whitenight
President

Lawrence Chamber of Commerce

Ernest E. Angino
Mayor
City of Lawrence

Thanks for attending

To the People,

We would like to extend our thanks to the people who attended the wedding ceremony of my daughter, Brenda George and Joe Badoni at the Shaker Church on June 1. We would like to thank the people who brought gifts for the newlyweds.

We want to especially thank the Tribal Council for the donation of salmon for the wedding dinner.

Sincerely,

Richard and Martha George and Family

I couldn't have done it without you

To the Editor,

Having just completed my schooling at COCC in Bend (I mean graduation and the whole bit!), I feel a great deal of relief—as if a burden has been taken from me. I am now able to relax and enjoy some of those things that I couldn't before.

School carries a lot of responsibilities, certainly more than I had anticipated. There's a lot of stress involved, lost sleep, limited social activities and a life of constant poverty. Of course, those go with the territory, if a student is mature enough to accept the responsibility, the work and the inconveniences. I accepted those and have become a better person for it.

Of course, it would not have been possible for me to go to school without financial assistance from the Tribal Education department. Special thanks to them! Also Lloyd Phillips, my boss, Doug McClelland, Ralph Minnick and Lloyd Smith, Sr., whose approval I could not have done without—Thanks Guys!

Many, many thanks to all those people who were my moral support: my kids, (Monica and Gary My #1 supporters), Mom and Dad, Sammi and CR, Terry and Gladys, Herb and Earlynne, Percy, Ginger, Della and Winnie, Grandmas Ellen and Lucinda, Larry and Sweets, Data Processing staff, Myrtle Mercer, who was always there to encourage and lend a shoulder and all the rest of the friends and relatives who encouraged me.

Thanks everyone!

Sincerely,

Val Squiemphen

Thanks for helping with run

To the Editor,

I know it's late, but I still owe some people thank yous, for the help that was put into the "Inter Tribal Sports Service Run."

The people who helped with registration, finish, and water hole, along with Warm Springs Police and Fire and safety were Margaret Wabanimeke, Carolyn Johnson, Beatrice Buffy and Shorty Tillwquots, Gerald Sampson and whoever I missed.

The same thanks would go to Inter Tribal Sports for sponsoring the run, and CORK of Bend for use of their timer during the Pi-ume-sha weekend.

It was a small turn-out, but I was reminded that the same people will always come back.

Thanks again,
Jerry Sampson

Court News

The Tribal Court would like to inform the people that responsibility for Bonding will be going from the Court to the Police Department effective Monday, July 23, 1984. This is another step toward centralizing and simplifying the legal system. This means that if you have bonding needs, you will need to go directly to the Police Department, not the Court, starting July 23.

Thanks for support of powwow

To the Editor,

This letter is to thank those people who gave up their time to help us out at our annual salmon bake at COCC. Your assistance was most helpful and very much appreciated.

Thanks to Verbena and daughters, Bernice and family, "Big Rat" and family, all the drummers and dancers and the models (for our fashion show) our advisor Myrtle Mercer (whose leadership was truly outstanding) and Myrtle's daughter Wanda (who is a barrel of laughs and kept our spirits up).

Of course the biggest thanks goes to the Tribal Council for their donation of salmon. All of you made our salmon bake "happen" and I thank you so very much for that. Also thanks to our kids who helped with lots of little things and put up with our nasty moods.

I believe the students need to be mentioned also because of all the work they did to organize the salmon bake. Dave Courtney, who took care of publicity for us and worked so very hard doing heavy lifting, building the fire and helping at the pit with the salmon; Bev DeBartholo, who fixed the fried bread, served food and is an all-around good cook; Roxanne Langnese, who did the decorating, made signs and helped with the fried bread; CR Squiemphen, who cleaned the salmon and helped decorate; Carla Buckland who helped decorate, even though she didn't feel good and Lenora Starr who helped in the kitchen and where ever needed, and who was one of the models and dancers.

Each of you deserve a big hand for a job well done.

Sincerely,

Val Squiemphen

Cayi team wins tournament

Sixteen stickgame teams vied for the championship title and first place money during Pi-Ume-Sha weekend. Top honors were won by the Willie Cayi team of Elmo, Montana. The Tom Dunn team of Nixon, Nevada won second with the Spokane team of Karen Coffey by the Helen Lee team of Hoh in third. Fourth place was won River, Washington.
