

Spilyay Tymoo

SPORTS

Boxing tourney draws top talent

Boxers from throughout Oregon and Western Washington came to the Community Center for a two day Silver Gloves Boxing tournament, with the preliminary bouts getting underway on Saturday night and the finals Sunday.

The tourney sponsored by the Warm Springs Boxing Club drew a total of eight teams with some top contenders in each weight division. Bringing in teams from Beaverton, Gilchrest, West Eugene, Washington County, Capitol Boxing Club, Kelso, Washington, and the Vancouver Elks.

The results of the finals were in the 10-11 year old at 70 lbs. Travis Hewitt of Gilchrest decided Frank Brunoe of Warm Springs: 10-11 year old, 80 lbs. Robert Hacket of Beaverton out pointed Kevin Hanson of Gilchrest: 10-11 year old 90 lbs. Vinnie Canizio of Beaverton beat Thomas Grogan also of Beaverton: 14-15 year old 125 lbs. Malcolm Nappo of the Capitol Boxing Club out pointed Kevin Brandt of Gilchrest: 14-15 year old 156 lbs. Shawn Lamere of the Capitol Boxing Club was a uncontested champion.

In the 14-15 year old 80 lbs. Dean Sheldon beat Brian Jones also of the Capitol Club: Special Senior 139 lbs Jose Rivera of the Washington County Boxing Club decisioned Sascha Pell of the Vancouver Club: Special Senior 139 lbs referee stopped the bout with Earl Mathews of Kelso the winner over Russell Tufti of Capitol Boxing Club: Special Senior 165 lbs Thomas Pedemonte of West Eugene stopped Stephen Diaz of Washington County: Open junior matched bout 75 lbs. Henry Nelson Capitol beat Leon Araiza of Beaverton: Novice matched bout Sonny Jackson W.S. Boxing Club was uncontested champion in that division:

Open senior matched bout in the 125 lbs class Oscar Garza of Vancouver stopped Joe James of Capitol: Open Jr. matched bout in the 119 lbs. Rudy Garza, Vancouver stopped Toby Bolden of Beaverton: Open Jr. matched bout in the 100 pound class Delbert Lawson of Warm Springs beat Gabriel Lopez of the Vancouver Elks.

There were 25 uncontested champions in the 10-11 year olds, the 12-13 year: 14-15 year olds: and the Special Seniors.

The U.S.A. Amateur Boxing Federation, Olympic style boxing tournament was the first card held at in Warm Springs this season. There is more boxing tournaments scheduled for later on in the year. The boxers showed good stamina so early in the season.

Thomas Pedemonte in the dark on the left of West Eugene boxing club was just too much for Stephen Diaz of the Washington County boxing club in the 165 lbs. special senior class. The bout was stopped at 2:40 of the third round, Gerald Smith referee.

Letters awarded to Cross Country team

Ten cross-country varsity team members received varsity letters at the November 19 cross-country award banquet. Receiving letters were: Jared Anderson, freshman; Mike Alire, sophomore; Brent Barnes, junior; Brian Buslach, junior; Mike Donaghu, senior; Arron Dunten, senior;

Don Hagglin, junior, Den Sahme, senior; Dale Lingren, junior; and Loren Suppah, junior.

Athletes receiving certificates are junior varsity team members: Chips Calica, senior; Chad Currutt, junior; Mike Dunten, sophomore; Mervin Governor, sophomore; Dennis Irwin, freshman; Bryan Oatman, sophomore; Joe Roley, freshman; Mark Simmons, sophomore; and Todd Whipple, sophomore.

Mike Donaghu was recognized as being the most outstanding runner on the White Buffalo team.

1984 football awards banquet

Recognition was given to outstanding White Buffalo football players during the November 20. Football Awards Banquet. Honored at the event were team captains Jason Smith and Scott Williams along with other players.

Several awards were presented to exceptional players including: Most Inspirational-Lynn White and Jason Smith; Best Defensive Player-Jason Smith; Best Offensive Player-Paul "Spud" Smith; and Most Valuable Player for 1984, receiving the Aaron Mitchell award, was Jason Smith.

Locals on All Conference team

Jason Smith and Anson Begay seniors at Madras High School and members of the high school varsity football team were selected for honors for the District 7AA all conference team.

Smith and Begay were both selected for the first team as lineman. Smith was selected on the first team as kicker. Smith was chosen for the first team as linebacker, Begay was selected for the second team as a linebacker.

Selection for the all conference football team is made by the football coaches from the five high schools in the District 7AA. The five schools in the league are Madras, Burns, Nyssa, Mac Hi and Vale.

Fund raiser for runners

There will be a spaghetti feed for Don Hoaglin and Aaron Dunten who have been invited to run in a 10 Kilometer event in China. Dunten and Hoaglin have played a key role in this years State Champion Cross Country team for the White Buffaloes.

The feed will be held November 30, from 5 to 7:30 p.m., in the Mud Springs Grange Hall along the old Culver highway. The menu is Spagetti, tossed salad with 1,000, French or Ranch dressing, fried bread, coffee or punch. The cost is $6.50 for family, $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children.

For tickets call 475-2812 or 475-6886.

During the six foot and under basketball tournament Kanim Smith is about to cast off for two points against, "The Blood," a team from Lapwai, Idaho. Lapwai went on to win the game and place second in the finals of the tournament.

Six foot and under basketball tourney

The White Swan Chiefs topped at the Lapwai Bloods 144-124, for the Championship during the six foot and under basketball tournament which was held in Warm Springs during the weekend of November 9-11, in a 12 team affair.

The game was a good fast and close one in the opening quarter but the Chiefs pulled away in the final quarter to give them the big margin at the end of the game. Bud Herrera lead all scorers with 43 points while teammates Johnny Lay added 34 and Jim Waubaunsee 30 points for the winners. Josh Leighton and Shawn Spencer each contributed 23 points for the losers.

In the consolation round the Northwest Indians rambled past Young Bucks for third place with the score of 132 to 89. Jay Keys popped in 40 points for the winners while teammates Monte Priest added 32 and Willie Stacona 26 points for the night. David Crowe led the scorers for the losers with a total of 31 points and Andy Leonard added 26.

Bud Herrera of the White Swan Chiefs was voted the most valuable player of the tourney. Donnie Wilson of the Warm Springs Warhoops was named Mr. Hustle and the sportsmanship award went to the Hoopa, California team. The All-stars included Rudy Clements, Warm Springs Tribes, Chaz Mitchell, Warm Springs Magpies: David Crowe, Warm Springs Youngbucks; Jay Keys, Northwest Indians; Johnny Lay, White Swan Chiefs, Josh Leighton, Lapwai Bloods; Charlie Shipentower, Wapato Hawks; Tony Obie, Hoopa, California; James "Buckwheat" Scott, Warm Springs War Hoops and Jim Waubaunsee, White Swan Chiefs.

Other teams participating in the tourney were the W.S. Magpies; Wapato Hawks; Portland Indians; Yakima Reds; W.S. Tribes; W.S. War Hoops; Fourwinds, Yelm; and Hoopa, California.

Leonard Redfox works on court moves with other JV basketball team members during after school practice session. White Buffalo basketball season gets underway December 1 with JV game against Sherman County in Madras at 1:00 p.m. and a varsity game against Columbia High School in Troutdale at Troutdale.

Fourth 10K Turkey Trot set

The 4th annual Turkey Trot will offer three distance events: a 10K run, a two-mile fun run and a 10K race walking on Saturday, November 24, 1984 in Madras. The event is sponsored by the Madras Sunrunners.

Turkeys will be given to the first male and first female of the 10K run. Ribbons will be given for the two-mile run for age groups 0-8, 9-13, 14-18 and 19 plus; for the 10K 0-9, 14-19, 20-29, 30-39, 40-49, and 50 plus; and for the race walking for first, second and third places. Participants will receive T-shirts through their entry fee if they so choose.

Registration without the T-shirt will be $3.00; with the T-shirt and postmarked before November 20 will be $7.00; and with the T-shirt after November 20 will be $9.00. Registration and waiver blanks can be picked up at the Spilyay Tymoo office.

The race and registration will be at the Buff Elementary school parking lot, 1301 Buff Street, Madras.

1984-85 winter team roping

The Madras winter team roping series at the Madras indoor arena will run on the weekends of November 11, December 9, 1984; January 20, February 17, March 17 and April 21, 1985. Sign up 10 a.m., rope at 11 a.m. Enter as many times you want.

There will be $1.00 Novice-Novice, 3 for $10 (all girls are Novice.) Open 3 for $15, (over $5,000, ropers are limited to entering two times.) For $1,000 Pro-Novice, 3 for $10, and $500 Novice-Novice 3 for $10.

Series buckles in each roping event. Buckle to header and heeler in novice novice. Buckle to high point girl in $1000 novice novice.

Fresh plastic horned cattle ready to go. For more information call Bob Miller at 546-5431. Buster Bain 548-6241 or Tim Messna at 548-7324.

Community Center Calendar

- November 22-24 Elimination basketball tournament
- November 26 Boy's and Girl's Youth Basketball fundraising bingo, 6:30 p.m.
- December 1 Boxing Smoker
- December 4 White Buffaloe Frosh Basketball, 4:15 p.m.
- December 4, 5 Candy-making for adults, 7:00 p.m.
- December 7, 8, 9 Old Duffers Basketball tournament
- December 11 Li'l Miss Warm Springs bingo, 6:30 p.m.
- December 14 November Fitness Challenge luncheon
- December 15 Christmas Bazaar
- December 18 Practice for elementary school program
- December 19 Warm Springs Elementary Christmas program
- December 24, 25 Community Center closed for holidays
- December 26-29 Holiday Basketball tournament