Letters to the Editor—

Turnout good at Serenity Lane potluck

To the Editor,

It was a time of happiness and celebration at the Serenity Lane Alumni Potluck December 19, 1984. We had a good turnout for the event which honored six people who completed the one year program.

We would like to thank Tribal Council for the donation of salmon and for the use of the Longhouse. Thank you for your support and help to make this a memorable event. It's been a great year for us all and we appreciate everyone's encouragement and support throughout the year. The dinner was a success as far as planning goes; thanks to everyone who contributed to the meal and were present to share the job of being together to celebrate an achievement that can be very difficult at times.

The people who finished the program with expiration date included are Myrtle Adams, October 21; George Johnson, November 5; Guy Wallulatum, November 21 and Mariel Frank, December 19. Another two completed the program but wished to remain anonymous.

We feel that Evelyn Wilson deserves a big hug for the great job she did on our behalf; she is traveling from Bend every Wednesday for After Care and we really appreciate all her work. Thanks a lot Evelyn!

Each of us would like to thank all family members and friends who helped make being sober so much easier.

In a court room the defense lawyer jumped up and said, "I object to everything he said," "Why," asked the judge? "It makes it sound as if I was listening." YIKES

A cop was on the witness stand. "I could see in the middle of the road he was on his hands and knees." "Your honor," interrupted the defense lawyer. "Just because he was on his hands and knees in the middle of the road at midnight is no sign that he was drunk." "What the lawyer says is quite true," agreed the cop. "But the defendant was trying to roll up the white line." YIKES

There was this guy in a bar telling the bartender of all his great exploits. "Now," said the bartender, "supposing you tell me something you can't do." "Well," said the guy, "for one thing—I can't pay the check." YIKES

One day instead of serving the usual hot meal, the school cafeteria handed our peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. After lunch, a satisfied first grader marching out of the door complimented the cafeteria manager: "Finally, you gave us a home cooked meal!" YIKES

MOIHS to purchase more artifacts

The next meeting to examine artifacts for possible purchase is on Monday, February 4 and Tuesday, February 5, 1985. The artifacts must have a History of Item form completely documented for each individual article before the Accessions Committee can examine them. Please take into consideration the following acquisition procedure.

- 1) The History of the Artifact form must be completed for each item. These forms can be picked up from MOIHS Accessions secretary Beulah Wahpat in the Tribal Council office.
- 2) The History form and artifact (s) is left with the secretary and the donor/seller is given a temporary receipt.
- 3) The item (s) is examined by the MOIHS Accessions Committee and either accepted or rejected on the basis of quality, appropriateness and institutional need.
- 4) If rejected, a letter of regret is sent to the would-be donor/seller and the articles returned to owner.
- 5) If accepted, an entry is made in the accession register and accession number is assigned.
- 6) The final approval of all purchases is then made by the MOIHS Board of Directors during their meeting the week following the Accessions Committee meeting.
- 7) A gift form is completed and signed by the authorized Museum Official and the previous owner. A copy of the form is provided the previous owner, MOIHS files and the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs.

8) The registration number is placed on the object and will appear on all forms and records associated with that object.

Artifacts must be reviewed and acknowledged by the Accessions Committee with the approval of the MOIHS Board of Directors before being accepted into the MOIHS Collection. The MOIHS Board of Directors and staff cannot guarantee retention, nor be held responsible, for unsolicited or unacknowledged gifts that have not undergone the above procedures. Because of the policy that all acquisitions need approval of the MOIHS

Board of Directors we cannot promise checks on the same day of the meeting. The Board will be meeting and viewing the proposed purchases the week after the appraisal day. If the item is accepted for purchase, the owner will be notified of the appraisal price before the check is processed so as to avoid inconveniences to the appropriate department involved. This will help if you leave a number where you can be reached.

Beulah Wahpat, MOIHS secretary, will be receiving artifacts from January 14 through February 1, 1985. Because of the paperwork involved prior to the accessions meeting, items will not be accepted after this deadline.
