

The failure to pass the 509-J school levy necessitates another election scheduled for November 5.

Goals aimed at improving education

The 509-J school board adopted management/ board goals during their meeting September 23. The goals are intended to improve education at district school in the immediate school year as well as planning for the future. Long-range planning goals are as follows:

Year one—1983-84

- 1. To improve quality and excellence in schooling based on local analysis of excellence reports and national recommendations for change.
- 2. To reduce student social problems related to transition from elementary school to junior high school.
- 3. To adopt formal Native American cultural curriculum.
- 4. To improve alternative education through evaluation of current program leading to revision and/or expansion for all students.
- 5. To adopt a school organization plan that promotes the most effective schooling.
- 6. To strengthen drug/alcohol abuse prevention through re-

- emphasis in elementary health education instruction.
- 7. To gain public support from non-parents.
- 8. To improve student study habits through parent education.
- 9. To maintain teaching strengths and reduce teaching deficiencies through strict, consistent application of District-adopted teaching evaluation plan.

Year Two—1984-85

- 1. To secure highest quality teachers through expanded recruitment and improved selection processes.
- 2. To initiate review of curriculum coordination in basic K-12 program based on competencies and standards.
- 3. To strengthen coordination of drug/alcohol abuse prevention among school, home and other agencies.
- 4. To reduce student behavior patterns which leads to suspension, drop-out, and alternative education.
- 5. To revise staff development policy.
- 6. To improve quality and excel-

- lence in schooling based on analysis of local, state and national recommendations for change.
- 7. To reduce student social problems related to transition from elementary school to junior high school.
- 8. Complete the joint agreement between the Warm Springs Confederated Tribes and District 509-J.

Year three—1985-86

- 1. To develop a plan and a process for curriculum development and revision.
- 2. To develop and implement a written curriculum for Native American history, culture, government, and contemporary issues.
- 3. To develop additional program ideas, alternatives, and teaching strategies within each building that will ensure a successful education for each student.
- 4. To select and conduct trials of promising practices with students who have poor attendance habits.
- 5. To emphasize teaching of critical thinking, K-6; study skills, 7-8; reading comprehension, K-6.

Income determines Head Start reimbursement

The Head Start and Head Start/Day Care programs in Warm Springs, Oregon recently announced its sponsorship of the USDA Child Care Food Program. Meals will be made available to enrolled children at no separate charge without regard to race, color, handicap, age, sex or national origin. Parents' income determines the amount of money USDA will reimburse is to provide meals to enrolled children. The income eligibility guidelines listed below are used to determine our reimbursement from USDA. Children from households whose monthly income is at or below these levels are eligible to be counted for free or reduced-price meal reimbursements.

Any person who believes that he or she has been discriminated against in any USDA-related activity should write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

Meals will be provided at the Head Start Program located in the Community Center and at the Head Start/Day Care trailers.

Crime statistics listed

The following statistics and narrative are reprinted at the request of JSA Gerald Smith.

During the first six months of 1985, the Warm Springs Police Department investigated many crimes reported to the department, and performed several public service functions. Listed below are these statistics, provided by Annette Kirkwood and Sylvia Maxwell of the Warm Springs Police Department Records Division.

Included in the criminal offenses are the traffic offenses investigated by the Police Department. The total traffic offenses include both major and minor traffic offenses.

The public service statistics reflect calls for service performed by the Police Department, which are non-criminal in nature, and can be considered more public-service oriented.

The "Other" category includes other incidents reported to the Police Department which are either unfounded, or over with prior to arrival of the responding officer. Some examples of such incidents might include prowlers who have fled the area prior to officer's arrival, fights which are over and from which the participants have disbanded, drunk drivers which could not be located, or assists to other agencies.

The categories shown below the list of public services performed are those incidents investigated by the Police Department but considered noncriminal in nature.

In 1984, the total criminal offenses (including traffic) investigated by the Police Department was 5,016. The mid-year total of 2,444 for 1985, is 48.72% of the year-end total for 1984. Considering this percentage, the crime rate for 1985 has decreased only slightly from the crime rate of 1984.

In 1984 the total public service functions performed by the Police Department was 3,141. The mid-year total of 1,298 for 1985, is 41.32% of the year-end total for 1984.

During the first six months of 1985, the total value of reported property stolen or damaged, came to $41,243.50. The total value of stolen property recovered came to $16,512.74.
