

Sharing moments of yesterday—

Looking out my window...

Old photographs can be a treasure that captures the images of the past and preserve a moment of history. These old photographs were made from negatives that Ruby Leno, former BIA employee had stored in a closet. If you have old pictures or negatives of Warm Springs consider sharing them with the Middle Oregon Indian Historical Society.

Many of the people in these photos have not been identified. If you know who the people are contact the Spilyay with identification.

The Old Homestead...

Visiting the Parson's wife...

We were all young once...

This is my youngest

A child of yesterday...

A mother's pride...
