"Spilyay Speaks"

January 15, marks the birthday of Civil Rights leader Martin Luther King who was shot during the month of April in 1968, in Memphis, Tennessee.

Despite an act by Congress in 1984 designating the third Monday in January as a federal holiday to honor King's birthday there will be many at work here in the northwest on that day. Most governmental offices will be open because of labor contracts that require them to be at work and there are some who feel that there are already too many paid holidays during this time of the year.

I saw an article in the Oregonian where the city of Sandy, Oregon, pretty well wrapped up the whole ball of wax by ordering a city holiday for "Great American Day," on February 17th to honor George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Susan B. Anthony, and Martin Luther King. This allows that town to avoid the expense of another paid holiday by honoring all great leaders.

There is no law requiring non-federal workers to take the day off. A state law here in Oregon requires public schools to observe King's birthday in some fashion on January 15, the actual birthday for Martin Luther King. Martin Luther King III was in Portland recently as part of a tour to help commemorate his father's birthday which has been declared a national holiday. King III said he fully supported marches, speeches and public gatherings to help celebrate his father's birthday.

No matter how well the occasion will be accepted as a national holiday this could bring about an increase to the tax payers to pay state and federal employees to take the day off. But there are some people who could care less who or what Martin Luther King stood for just as long as they got that easy buck handed to them for another paid holiday. It should be apparent that some consideration should be given to for the cost because of all the budget cutbacks across the nation today. Why add another cost when the tax payers can hardly approve an school operate budget within their own school districts let alone cover the cost of another paid holiday. But like I say there are those who will do anything to find something to celebrate or have a powwow. Celebrations are costly, it even costs jobs in some respects, but some people would rather go to a powwow rather than to work.

Assistance appreciated

Thank you for help, support

To the People,

Thank you relatives, friends and all who helped with the burial of our sister, mother and dear friend. It has taken this long to be able to respond to the lovely cards and flowers from everyone. It is hard because it still seems so fresh in our minds but we want you all to know that you were not forgotten or we were ungrateful.

A loving thanks to Geraldine Jim, Auntie Dorothy, Caroline Tohet, Delia Crume, the drummers, the cooks and their helpers, the grave diggers, the pall bearers and those that gave for the give-a-way and the hunters. If we missed anybody it isn't intentional. Without everyones prayers we wouldn't have been able to make it through the sorrowful time. Those that traveled from afar, a special thank you for caring. God bless everyone.

Care of elderly gratifying for family members—

Dear People of Warm Springs,

now gone home.

We would like to express our deepest appreciation for your love and concern in the loss of our "Grandpa Sims" in this past week. Since he had been living with us, we had grown to care and love him, and wanted to give our best, as an elder, should have.

Young people we'd like to let you know that taking care of an elder is the most gratifying reward you can ever have out of life. You learn many things from them especially what life has to offer. We inherited a reward that is far beyond any person's understanding. God placed Grandpa with us for a year, for a reason, and that is for each of our learning, he was a gift for a time. He did his work and has

So people respect one another, greet each other with love, that is a gift that we learned from Grandpa. Each one of us is a gift to each other. Kindness and love is what we all lack today. We must remember the simple short scripture of what grandpa stood for—God is love. In each of us is a precious memory of Grandpa, we'll all miss him.

Thank you to Nettie, Matilda, Sylvia and elders of Simnasho, your friendship and love has helped us deeply. Thank you Shaker families for support and prayers and the many, many other relatives and friends. We express our prayers to the family left, Ron, Tillman and Dwayne.

Help appreciated

To the Editor,

We would like to thank all the people who donated clothes, toys and food for the needy families. From the donations we were able to prepare 20 boxes for local Indian families who requested help. Families who received a ham or turkey should thank the following tribal employees, Doug McClelland, Bob Jackson, Versa Smith, Ron Suppah, Ed Manion, Mike Clements and Anita Jackson.

We were sorry we were not able to deliver to all the people who were in need. This year we want to start requesting donations earlier to include more families.

Again, thank you for your thoughtfulness and have a prosperous 1986 year.

Volunteers for the project were Ivan and Mayann Gabriel, Ante and Darl Pamperien, Madeline Queahpama and children Shauna and Joel Craig, Margaret and Dan Buckland and Rhonda.

Sincerely,

Bible should be followed in daily path

To the People,

The stage was set for spiritual warfare for the possession of mankind as recorded in the Bible. This conflict originated during the sacrifices of Cain (grain, fruit and man) and Abel (blood sacrifices). Genesis 4:4. From the geanology of Cain, came Jubal Genesis 4:21. Jubal was the originator of the handline the harp and organ, which were musical instruments. Jubal was inspired by the anointed Cherub (an angel) who played pipes and tabrets (musical instruments) prior to the creation of mankind. This angel's name is Lucifer, who was one of the most beautiful angels ever created, "was full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty" Ezk. 28:12.

This angel no longer resides in heaven. When Lucifer and one third of the other angels rebelled against God they were cast down to earth Revelations 4:3-9. This angelic being then became and the adversary to man and god. Satan (adversary) and the fallen angels are now referred to as demons or other gods. God is a spirit (John 4:24) angels are spirited, demons are spirited, Satan is a spirit, all spirits are disembodied. Natural eyes cannot see them, only the spirit filled people of God can perceive them.

Spirits are manifested through humans, animals and other mediums such as radio, t.v., movies and literature. Satan and his spiritual army (demons) have been manifested through a special armed vehicle called music! Heavy metal, punk rock, country music, and even some contemporary Christian music have borrowed the satanic beat! This diabolical (evil) force has been very effective in that it captivates and influences our people both old and young into the destruction of the mind, body, and soul. The dangerous messages it projects are death, drugs, alcohol, suicide, which are all works of the flesh. Murder, and even stresses are all of the bloodless covenant religious (Cains sacrifice). The messages come in the form of lyrics, complicated rhythms, suggestive apparel, punk hairstyles, etc. Although innocent as it may look, or sound, music of this nature is inspired by demonic forces.

Although the Bible does not elaborate much on historical events prior to the flood, there's an indication that Tubal Cain, half brother of Jubal, "who was an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron" (Genesis 4:22). The definition for artificer is Skilled workman, craftsman, inventor and technician. It's very possible that this could have been an advanced technological civilization. Biblical scholars place the Adam generation lasting 1652 years to 2242 years. This entire civilization, which became ungodly, was destroyed, because of Jubal's inspired music, and other ungodly acts that were created by Cain's sacrifice. As a result of these evil activities, Satanic understanding became increased.

The destruction of all flesh by God had now come in Noah's time. Christ Jesus said of his coming, "But as days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the son of man be" (Matthew 24:37).

All that had taken place in Noah's time is taking place now! History is repeating itself. If your religion doesn't deliver you from the spiritual destructive forces mentioned above, then it is not the gospel of Jesus Christ. If you are oppressed and want to be free of these evil forces seek God's word. A spiritual, born again experience is brought about by the "water (God's Word) and of the Spirit" (see John 3:3-7). An individual cannot get by with their own good works or simply giving up any type of evil like music, drugs, alcohol, etc. Complete deliverance from oppression can be obtained only by the shed blood of Jesus, as likened onto Abel's blood sacrifices, which pleased God.

Our primary concern is to have you: as one of God's very special creations. Come into the knowledge of Christ Jesus. A countdown by God the Father has been set in motion, another destruction of all flesh is on the horizon. Not by a flood, but fire. We now print you to the way of spiritual security which is the blood stained cross of the Savior. The door (Christ Jesus) of the ark of safety is coming to the time of closing. Seek eye the Lord while he yet may be found!

We pray that this message may open up the spiritual ear to your heart. To my people with the Godly sincerity and Love of our Lord Jesus Christ.

George Aguilar

Thank you, Mr. Jim

Letter to the People,

Thanks to the participants of the Blue Boar mini-powwow.

A statement I heard made by Nathan "8-Ball" Jim which woke me and could awaken many other people was, "Many other people will scoff and laugh at us drunks but we are raising funds for the Simnasho Lincoln's Day powwow. How many of these sober non-drinking other people who scoff at us are doing the same by raising funds?"

I would like to thank Mr. Jim for this statement.
