Tribal Council directs letter to people

To the People of Warm Springs,

Over the past few years, we have considered the installation of a 911 phone system that will enable Warm Springs residents to more quickly reach the police department in case of emergencies. That new system will be a reality in a few short months. We will be able to participate in the planning of the state-wide program as well as retain and manage our own system. Instead of residents having to remember a lot of different phone numbers, callers with a 553 prefix will only have to dial 9-1-1 and immediately reach the Warm Springs police department. The proper law enforcement agency will automatically be dispatched. Available state funding will help offset our expense of installing the system.

Tribal Council has been reviewing the cost of our liability insurance. We're beginning to feel the crunch that is occurring on the national level. Insurance costs have risen dramatically in recent years and we're alarmed by the costs that are being projected this year.

Chief Judge Richard Frederick recently completed his one-year probation period and will continue his position for another three years. As per the Tribal Law and Order Code, any newly appointed judge is required to fulfill the one-year probation period.

Madras physician Bud Beamer recently indicated, due to a good showing of community support, that an all-weather track could be built at Madras High School. Tribal Council listened to his proposal but took no action.

Tribal Council recently reviewed the third draft of Chapter 362 which would provide for the appointment of a guardian or conservator for a person who is not capable of caring for himself or property. Chapter 362 would set guidelines as to just how it would be determined that a person is in need of a guardian or conservator, who would appoint such a person or persons and what authority a guardian or conservator would have.

We authorized Ed Manion and Satish Puri to apply for IHS 121 monies for the proposed Dry Creek Subdivision which is located southwest of the Tewee Butte water tower. The 121 monies are for the installation of water and sewage lines.

The first meeting of the Warm Springs Power Enterprise Board of Directors will be held April 1. The Board consists of Ralph Minnick, Delbert Frank, Sr., Al Bartholomew, Charles Lane and John Elorriaga. The WSPE Board of Directors was appointed June 25, 1985 upon revision of the original plan of operation which provided for a Board. Bartholomew is the retired Pacific Power and Light Vice President and worked with the Tribe in developing the cooperative agreement between the Tribe and PP and L on the extension of power service about 15 years ago. Luce is a former BPA administrator and is an attorney who worked with the Umatilla Tribe for several years. Elorriaga is Chairman of the Board of U.S. Bancorp. The Board is responsible for overseeing power sales contracts.

The Land Use Code is close to completion and the Council is developing criteria on land use areas. We are also working on how land is to be administered.

Warm Springs Superintendent Bernard Topash should be reporting soon to Council on the Warm Springs Agency budget and how the Graham/Rudman bill will affect BIA and IHS. Council is already planning their approach to this year's House Appropriations hearings. Those hearings will be held the first week of March in Washington, D.C.

Council, in March, will be considering recommendation on on minor's trust funds, hopefully improving the funds' growth performance. Also to be considered in March will be a proposal on the Western Wear Apparel enterprise, the promotion of reservation-wide economic development and the proposal to set aside monies for senior citizens pension and educational scholarships for the future.

Affiliated Tribes of the Northwest Indians, under the presidency of Delbert Frank, Sr., grew in membership and treasury. Their fiscal responsibility and financial health improved dramatically while Frank was president over the past four years.

Tribal Council also reviewed and approved changes to the employee pension program to bring it more in line with federal law.

In response to tribal member concerns about the tribal budget, the Tribal Council has been actively seeking the input during district meetings to improve the way the budget is put together. Further meetings will be scheduled for this purpose.

Warm Springs Chief Delvis Heath required emergency surgery and at this time is recovering quite well.

Respectfully submitted,
Warm Springs Tribal Council

Editor's Note: In an effort to convey to tribal members what is happening on a regular basis in Council chambers, the Warm Springs Tribal Council will, beginning with this issue of Spilyay Tymoo, offer information to readers that is pertinent, timely and factual. Tribal Council intends to submit a letter each issue which will review events for the membership.

Five travel to Germany for trade show

As this is being read, five Warm Springs residents will be in West Germany, offering a brief glimpse of the history, culture and present-day life styles of the American Indian.

Rudy and Anna Clements, Charles and Nancy Tailfeathers and Anson Begay all left Portland, Oregon February 26 for a week-long stay in West Germany as part of an effort of the Oregon State Tourism Department. Their trip was funded by the State of Oregon. The five will be among approximately 300 other Oregon and Washington residents who will be participating in the International Tourism Exchange (ITB).

The ITB travel trade show is a seven-day exhibition visited by the travel trade, press and the public and is held in Berlin. Approximately 100,000 people attended the exhibition last year.

At the ITB, Oregon and Washington will be represented in the 17,000 square foot USA pavillion. Two loggers and two Indian dancers will be providing entertainment throughout the travel trade show.

The five from Warm Springs were selected for the International tourism exchange "on their knowledge of traditional Indian culture, Indian dancing abilities and their individual talents," said a release from the Oregon tourism department. Begay will perform the Eagle, Hoop, Traditional and Fancy Dances and prepare fried bread. Tailfeathers will narrate and perform the Traditional, Grass

Annual Easter program set

The Theatre of Performing Group is having their Annual Easter Program on Saturday, March 29, 1986. We would like anyone interested to join the Performing Arts Group in presenting the Warm Springs Easter Program.

We are looking for actors, actresses, carpentors, artists, MC's choir, and sound production people, props men, costume makers and much more! We will post the time and days of the meetings, but if you don't know please call the Community Center

Swim cards available

The 1986 Swim Discount Cards are now being issued through the Community Center office of Wellness. All full-time Tribal employees, Indian Health Service Employees working at Warm Springs, B.I.A. employees working at Warm Springs and 509-J School District employees are eligible to receive these cards. The cards entitle the holder to swim at Kah-Nee-Ta on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday (excluding Holidays) for one-half the regular price. Tribal members may also obtain one of these cards; however, it is not necessary as your Tribal enrollment card will allow you the same discount.

Resort has new pro

ON DUTY—Gregory Little has taken the position of golf professional at Kah-Nee-Ta. He has been on duty since February 1.

Gregory Little has assumed duties as golf professional at Kah-Nee-Ta Resort and Spa golf course. He follows Doug Hood who resigned in October 1985.

Little, 28 comes from Helena, Montana where he has been assistant professional at the municipal golf course for two years. He was previously assistant at Black Butte Country Club in Havre, Montana for two years.

Little, who is married and has a five-year-old son, arrived at Kah-Nee-Ta the weekend of February 1. He attended Phoenix Junior College in Arizona, has shot at 65, his lowest competitive round and a personal low score for competition shot during the Mini-series of the Winter Tour at McCormick Ranch in Phoenix, Arizona.

The first tournament at Kah-Nee-Ta, traditionally beginning the season, is the Pepsi Pro-Am which is tentatively scheduled for March 15-16.
