

Inclement weather doesn't deter celebrants

The graceful Shawl dance

Concentration of Traditional War Dance

Preparation for contest dancing

The rhythm of Traditional Dancing

Colorful regalia of fancy dancer

Neither rain, nor snow, nor sleet, nor dead of winter kept contestants and spectators from enjoying the eleventh annual Lincoln's Birthday Powwow held in the Simnasho Longhouse February 14, 15 and 16. Snow-packed roads, travelers' warnings and low temperatures for the Warm Springs area did not hamper many people from attending the powwow. Three hundred dancers took part in the contests with 15 drumming groups taking part in the drummers' contest.

Winners are listed: Boys fancy, 7-12 years—1. Gary Smith, Granger, Washington; 2. Clifford George, Georgeville, Washington; 3. Dorian Tappo, Warm Springs; Boys traditional, 7-12 years—1. Merle Eaglespeaker; 2. Ike Johnson, Warm Springs; 3. Levi George, Warm Springs; Girls Fancy Shawl, 7-12 years—1. Lily Meanus, Warm Springs; 2. Charmaine Watts, Warm Springs—3. Lyda Rhoan, Warm Springs; Girls Traditional, 7-12 years—1. Allison Rhoan, Warm Springs; 2. Josephine Johnson, Warm Springs; 3. Elsie Jim, Rock Creek, Washington; Boys fancy, 7-12 years—1. Trevor Ewack, Hobbema, Alberta, Canada; 2. Eric George, Georgeville, Washington; 3. William Wesley, Celilo, Oregon; Boys traditional, 7-12 years—1. Macky Begay, Simnasho; 2. Greves Pouchettes, Morley, Alberta, Canada; 3. John Sam, Reno, Nevada; Girls fancy, 7-12 years—1. Suzette Bull, Little Pine, Saskatchewan, Canada; 2. Gayle Raine, Hobbema, Alberta, Canada; 3. Donetta Danzuka, Simnasho; Girls Traditional, 7-12 years—1. Masama Danzuka, Warm Springs; 2. Delilah Begay, Celilo; 3. Renee George, Toppenish, Washington; Mens fancy, 18-49 years—1. Phillip Kaiyou, Ft. Hall, Idaho; 2. Gerald Baptiste, Little Pine, Saskatchewan, Canada; 3. Frank Bullhead, Ft. Yates, North Dakota; Mens traditional, 18-49 years—1. Walter Bull, Little Pine, Saskatchewan, Canada; 2. Bill Hayes, Ft. Hall, Idaho; 3. John Baker, North Dakota; Womens fancy, 18-49 years—1. Tina Bull, Little Pine, Saskatchewan, Canada; 2. Danell Tailfeathers, Simnasho; 3. Elizabeth Beavert, Celilo; Womens traditional, 17-49 years—1. Ruth Bull, Saskatchewan, Canada; 2. Tina Whiteman, Toppenish, Washington; 3. Lia Twee, Warm Springs; Senior Citizens men—1. Walter Bull, Saskatchewan, Canada; 2. Richard Walsey, Satus, Washington; 3. Tom Begay, Simnasho; and Womens Senior Citizens—1. Elsie Pistolhead, Toppenish, Washington; 2. Aurelia Stacora, Warm Springs; 3. Irene Cloud, Toppenish, Washington.

The Battle Creek North Battlefield drum from Saskatchewan, Canada won the first place honors and monies in the drumming contest. Second place went to the Snake River drum from Ft. Hall, Idaho; third to Stoney Park, Morley, Saskatchewan, Canada; fourth to White Eagle of Cortez, Colorado; fifth to Eagle Spirit from Satus, Washington; sixth to Indian Nation from Granger, Washington; and seventh to High Noon from Hobbema, Alberta, Canada.

The 1986 Lincoln's Birthday Powwow queen was Angela Selam, 14, daughter of Louie Selam and Sylvia McCabe of Warm Springs. Members of her court are Danielle Gabriel, Phoebe Suppah and Yvette Colfax.

Two special events held during the weekend were a name giving ceremony for Miss Warm Springs 1986, Lana Shike and a luncheon to honor Olney Patt who was recently sworn in.

Royalty Lana Shike Miss Warm Springs and powwow Queen Angela Selam