(The way it is)

Letters to the Editor—

"Spilyay Speaks"

Life is beautiful, like a happy memory or like the sunset that ends a perfect day. People are beautiful, as for instance, a bride, or as the face of true love.

Life can also be beastly, as a heat wave in hell or the law of the jungle.

We take things for granted, and never serious, just as long as we satisfy ourselves through greed, self pity or by taking advantage of our neighbors. Some benefit through other's labor, by cheating them, stealing from them or by some other shameful manner.

We call each other "Brother," and say, "We're brothers and must stick together." Sometimes the only time we realize who we are is when we are in some kind of trouble. We fail to realize what harm we have done to others by our wrong doings. We sit and realize the mistakes we made and feel the need for sympathy. We even look to the heavens and say, "Oh, Great Spirit, Creator of Man, help me, let me be free." Sometimes this helps, but only for a gifted few.

Everyone in this cruel world has just as equal a chance as the next guy to make it through life, if he only would apply himself. Dependence is not the answer, we have to look out for our own well-being. It is a shame to see so many blame the whole world for their mistakes and never try to regain their dignity. They are critical of those who are trying to make ends meet, or those who are trying to make a home for themselves. There are those who will greet people with a big smile to their face, but yet they would not hesitate to stab them in the back. They could care less for your future after they have stripped you of your hard earnings.

It is difficult to believe we have people who are sly, sneaky and sick. Sick in the mind to do what they do, they steal from their so-called "Brothers," sometimes they steal equipment that is used for one's livelihood. Things used on the job. Why they do these things is sickening and irresponsible. I say, some of you "Bros," who can't get out and earn a respectful living, instead of stealing, make a living like the rest of the people, should not call others "Brother." It is pathetic when you can't trust your own "bro" around here.

New employees welcomed

Head Start

We would like to welcome to our department Angie Govenor, who is working as a secretary trainee, under the Women's Program and JTPA. We also welcome Evette Patt who is a teacher's aide at the Head Start/Day Care trailer. She is also under the Women's Program. They are doing a great job!

The Head Start/Day Care trailer

children have been going on quite a few field trips this summer; Little Crater, Fish Hatchery, Kah-neeta, Trout Lake, Indian Park, and KWSI radio station. They have a few more trips left for the summer and they are really enjoying themselves.

Warm Springs Head Start is looking for handicapped preschool children to participate in their program. Each newsletter we will present to you a checklist of early warning signs for your child: hearing checklist; get help if your child does not turn toward the source of sounds or voices by six month of age, has runny ears or ear aches, talks unusually loud, does not respond when called from another room, and turns the same ear-side towards a sound he or she wishes to hear. If you are aware of your child (ren) or relatives experiences these things please have them contact the clinic as soon as possible.

Day Care

We would like to welcome to our department our new substitutes, Lisa Smith, Lorelei Govenor and Shirley Healy. Also helping us are: Joni Wallulatum, Melissa Wolfe and Dawn Chapman from the Women's Program. They are all doing a great job!

There are opening in our Latch Key and Kindergarten rooms. Also, the Day Care Center does take drop-ins for those children ages six weeks through 12 years of age. Fees do vary depending on the number of children in the program. Day Care is here to meet your needs, for further information contact Charlene White, 553-1161, ext. 240.

Shike preparing for competitions

By Lenora Starr

Miss Warm Springs 1986, Lana Shike, is making final preparations for the stiff competition awaiting her in Bismarck, North Dakota for the title of Miss Indian America XXXI. She will be competing with young women from many different Indian tribes throughout the United States September 2, 1986.

Shike's goals at the pageant are "to be the best I can, meet a lot of girls and make new friends," said Shike.

During the pageant she will be judged on poise and beauty, but most of all, her personality, communication skills and knowledge of her heritage and general media.

Shike is working on her talent presentations for the pageant. She is choreographing a dance skit for her modern presentation and for her traditional presentation, she will arrange for fresh salmon to be flown to Bismarck so that she can display how to fillet a salmon.

Shike's travels as Miss Warm Springs have taken her to several youth leadership conferences in Washington D.C., Tacoma, Washington and an education conference in Newport, Oregon. Shike has made several trips to Kah-Nee-Ta to perform the Lord's Prayer in Indian sign language while on horseback for visitors.

Shike will also be participating in the Miss National Congress of American Indians pageant two weeks following her trip to Bismarck. The site of the NCA conference this year is Phoenix, Arizona.
