

Bureau announces new employees, promotions

Enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, Jackie Simtustus is the new supply clerk.

Wendell Cook joined the BIA forestry scaling team.

A BIA transferee from the Portland Area Office Terry Tucumsah is the new secretary for the BIA law enforcement investigator.

A former Tribal employee Beverly Hernandez became a BIA forestry technician.

New BIA employees in Warm Springs within the last year are Myron Ami, Wendell Cook, Beverly Hernandez, Tommy James, Darrel Kruzen, Ross Racine and Terry Tucumsah.

Two Warm Springs BIA employees who have received promotions are Bill Donaghu Jackie Simtustus.

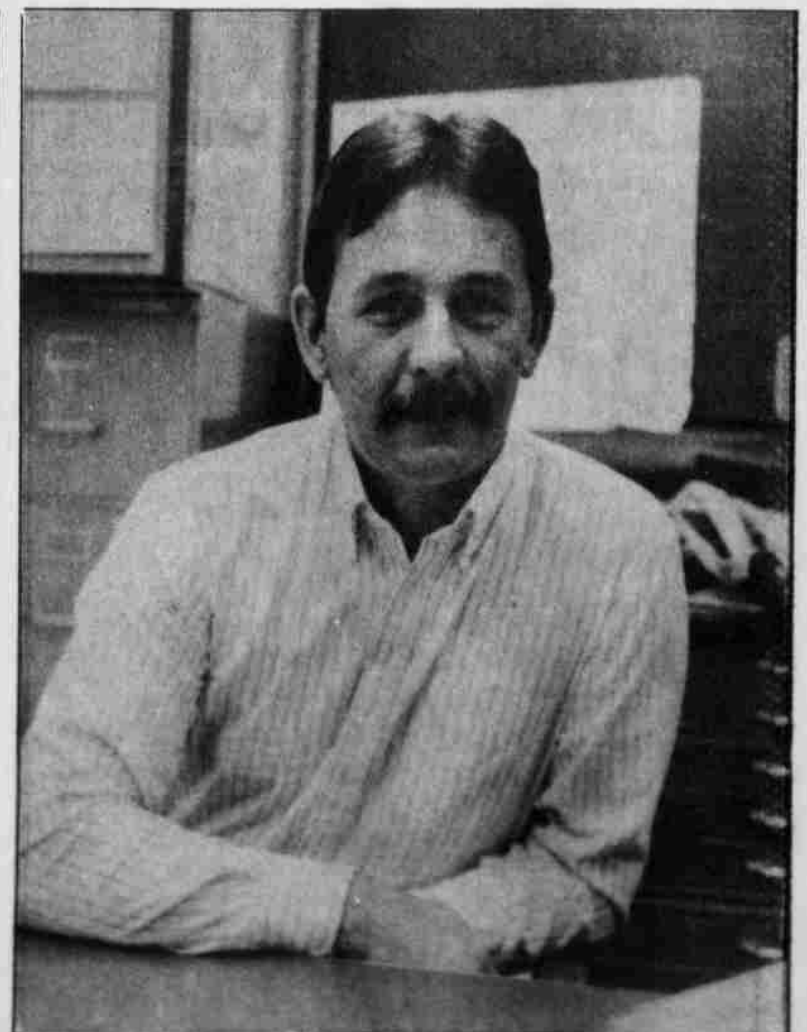

A new employee for forestry presale is Darrel Kruzen.

Myron Ami formerly of California now works for forestry scaling.

Bill Donaghu was promoted to the BIA forestry timber sales manager.

Transferring from Browning, Montana, Ross Racine is the new soil conservationist at BIA Land Operations.