

Spilyay Tymoo

SPORTS

With arms tangled, a foul called during heavy action during the elimination tourney the action was wild and some pretty close games played.

This photo is of a game between the Travelers and Chiloquin.

Spilyay Tymoo photo by Miller

Renegades take trophy in invitations tourney

The Warm Springs Renegades won the first 30-and-over Invitational basketball tournament held in the Community Center at the end of October, as reported by Leo Hellon, tournament director, and coach of the Scouts team.

There were eight teams in the tourney hosted by the WS Scouts, others were the 501's, the Renegades, Macy's, Simnasho Roadrunners, Satus, Mystery team and Sprague River.

Fourth place went to Macy's Store, coached by Jim Macy, players included Bernie Earl, Jack Spackman, Darryl Smith, Ben Richards, Nelson Zomont, Merle George and Glen Frederick. The third place team was the Simnasho Roadrunners with team members, coach Tony Suppah, Jerry Sampson, Rick Minthorn, Kip Archambault, Tom Kathrine, Richard Tohet, Isaac Mitchell, Uren Leonard, Romaine Miller, and Rudy George. The team received a trophy and pullover shirts. Taking second were the 501's, coached by Levi Bobb. Team members were Frankie Smith, James Conners, LeRoy Bobb, Tony Gilbert, Bennie Heath, Ford Gopher, Gale Wak Wak, Darrel Eastman, and Carmen Blake.

The championship team was the Warm Springs Renegades, team members included Kanim Smith (coach), John Katchia, Sr., Robert Eagleheart, Bobby Smith, Julian Smith, Randy Settler, Mike Clements and Carlos Northrup. The final score for the championship game was 108-85. The champs were presented with a traveling trophy. The team who wins it three times will be the permanent possessors.

There were All-Stars voted on which consisted of Mr. Hustle, Carmen Blake of the 501's, MVP was John Katchia of the Renegades, and the Hatchetman award went to Nelson Zomont. Jim Macy was awarded a ribbon shirt for the most seasons played. The announcer and score keeper was Steve Walker of KWSO.

Eight teams play in No-frills tournament

There was a No Frills basketball tournament held in the Community Center on November 7-8, 1986, which consisted of eight teams which included the Spirits, coached by Don Sohappy, the Cougars, managed by Owen Danzuka, the Warm Springs Renegades managed and coached by Kanim Smith, the 4-Winds, managed and coached by Ray Caldera, the Frontier Scouts, managed and coached by Leo Hellon, the Simnasho Roadrunners coached and managed by Tony Suppah, the Young Bloods, coached by Ricky Minthorn, and the 501's coached by Levi Bobb. The winner of the first No frills tourney were the Spirits who edged out the Simnasho Roadrunners for the title. The third place went to the Cougars and fourth went to the Renegades.

The tournament was termed a great success and plans are on for another tournament like this.

They were scores of sponsors with a list an arms length and they all know who they are, the tournament director would like to let them know how much he appreciated their support.

Oregon Travelers earn spot in Holiday tourney

The Oregon Travelers earned a spot in the big Christmas Holiday All-Indian Basketball Tournament that will be held here in the Community Center on December 31, January 1, 2 and 3.

In the championship game the Travelers were led by Jerome Davis who scored a total of 43 points. Davis scored four field goals in each quarter and he was 11 out of 13 from the free throw line. A great performance by Davis kept the pressure on the Chiloquin team all through the game. The Travelers led at half time by the score of 58-46. During the second half the Chiloquin team came storming back to out score the Travelers 26-22 in the third quarters and 27-22 in the fourth quarter, but that wasn't enough to overcome the lead and the Travelers held on to winning the game by a slim margin of 102-99.

Others doing well for the Travelers were Jamie Henry who scored 23 points before he drew his sixth foul. Toot Pennington added 10 points before he received his last foul. Chaz Mitchell and Rich Wells each added nine points. Willie Stacona rounded out the scoring for the Travelers, chipping in eight points.

Ed Case, Jr. led the scoring for the Chiloquin team burning the nets for 32 points before he fouled out of the game. Adrian Whitcraft added 29 points before he fouled added 29 points, 18 of which came in the second half. Lylle Barney had 10 points before he fouled out. Joe Law cored eight points and Thumper Miller scored two to round out the scoring for the visiting Chiloquin team. Both teams will see action in the Holiday Tournament.

The 28th annual tournament is all geared up with some very god basketball teams. Returning will be last year's champs, a team from North Dakota. Other teams to appear include the Crow Hawks form Lame Deer, Montana, who placed second at the NIAA Nationals earlier this spring. Another Montana team, from Rocky Boy, placed third at the Nationals is also scheduled to appear. Other teams are Haskell, Kansas, Nez Perce Nation of Lapwai, Idaho, Yakima Nation, Santa Clara, California, Pendleton, Chiloquin, the Travelers, the Road Runners and the Host Magpies. Alternates include Ft. Hall, Idaho, and Hoopa, California.

The Travelers had to come through the back door to win the double elimination tournament. In making the stretch run for the title, the Travelers beat the 501s by the score of 110 to 100, thus putting the 501s in third place. During the game Jamie Henry scored a total of 45 points, followed by Kip Archumbult's 23, Willie Stacona 12, Chaz Mitchell 10, Ron Jones 8 and Rich Wells 6.

Magpies the champs in 6 foot and under meet

The Warm Springs Magpies were the champions of this year's Six-Foot and Under All-Indian basketball tournament which was held on November 14, 15 and 16, here in the Community Center.

Jamie Henry of the Magpies was 19 out of 21 from the free throw line and added five field goals for a total of 29 points to lead all scoring for the game. Others in double figures for the Magpies were Buck Wheat Scott and Smitty Smith who both scored 14 points while Max Mitchell added 12, Bob Main scored 8, Austin Greene and Donnie Bagley 2, to round out the scoring.

Punky Bronson was the leading scorer for the Pendleton team with a total of 18, Delmar Whitefoot 17, Bryson Bronson 12, Bobby Eagleheart 9, Dion Smith 6, Gary Pierce 4, Noel Hill 3.

The game was a thriller from start to finish as the Magpies led at the end of the first quarter 19-17, and Pendleton took the lead at half time 41-39. Pendleton led at the end of the third quarter 59-58. In the final quarter the Magpies just out lasted the visiting Pendleton team winning the game from the charity strip as Jamie Henry was 7 out of 8 at the free throw line. There were 14 foul shots made out of 17 for the Magpies in the fourth quarter that helped to give the Magpies the slim win.

In the game for third and fourth places the Central Washington University topped the Klamath team 114-91, CW scoring was led by Bud Herrera with 33, followed by Johnny Lay 28, Chief Sanchey 11, Loren James 8, Shawn VanPelt 10, Henry Strom 5, Charley Strom 7, Carl Braden 6 and Bryan Stanley 4.

Jason Ray was the leading scorer for the Klamath team with a total of 26, Bret Whitcraft 20, Thumper Miller 13, Jerome Jackson 10, Larry Whitcraft 9, and Max Jackson 13. Klamath led at the end of the first quarter 33-27, and at half time the score was 59-58, but at the end of the third quarter the Central Washington team pulled ahead 80-74 and were in no trouble from there on out as they scored 34 points in the final quarter to Klamaths 17, this giving the CW the win of 114-91.

The MVP was Jamie Henry of the Magpies, Mr. Hustle award went to Charlie Strom, Central Washington, the sportsmanship trophy went to Klamath. The All-Stars include Bob Main and Max Mitchell both of the Magpies, Bryson Bronson and Vern Punky Bronson of Pendleton, Bud Herrera and Johnny Lay of Central Washington, Jayson Ray Klamath, Roger Enick Wapato, Wade Brown of Auburn, WA, Dutchie Blodgett of Satus. The tournament director was Austin Greene.

Aerobic class begins

A beginning aerobics class is being conducted each Tuesday and Thursday from 12:15 p.m. to 12:45 p.m. in the "Aerobics Room" at the Community Center in Warm Springs. This class is designed for students wishing to take part in a low-level, beginning aerobics exercise class and is open to anyone wishing to participate. There is no charge for the class. If you have any questions, contact Eva Montee, Coordinator of the Tribal Wellness Program at 553-1161, ext. 205.

Safeway to benefit Easter Seals

The Central Oregon Safeway Stores will hold their 1st Annual Men's Basketball tournament to benefit Easter Seals on January 16, 17 and 18.

This men's, full court, double elimination tournament is open to the first 24 teams to register. The $100 per team entry will be a donation to the Easter Seal Society's programs for those with disabilities. Games will be played at Obsidian Junior High and Evergreen School in Redmond. Everyone is invited to come and watch the fun—hot dogs and other refreshments will be provided.

Registration forms can be picked by calling Steve Wagner at 388-0867 or Leslan Carlson at 389-8998. The deadline for entries is January 5. Send completed entries to: c/o Safeway Stores, 642 NE 3rd, Bend, Oregon 97701.

Have fun—win a trophy—and help your neighbors with disabilities reach their goals.

Petunias are winners

The fall weight loss contest club, the Petunias, lost a total of 115.5 pounds in ten week's time. Each of the 26 members paid a $10 entry fee.

Linda Fuller lost the most weight and received $75 as did Rosie Tom. Iris Quam came in third and received $50 and Priscilla Squiempfen placed fourth and received $25. Alice West, Viola Governor, Lillian January, Angie Boise, Carla Parra, Ella Wewa and Merle Kalama each received $10 for their weight loss efforts.

The winter weight loss contest will begin January 12. Contact Lillian January at the IHS clinic for more information after January 1.

The Harlem Crowns, a basketball team from Oakland, California were in town entertaining a near-capacity crowd in the Community Center. Their comical and humorous antics kept the crowd on edge all evening long. The Warm Springs team was right in the middle of things, having fun all the time.

Spilyay Tymoo photo by Miller