"Spilyay Speaks"

Basketball tournaments around here are as common as having breakfast everyday. We've had so many tournaments so far this year that its getting to the point that they are not interesting anymore. There was the Warm-Up tourney, a 6 foot and under, 30 year and older, the no frills tourney, the Travelers tourney and some others. What it all boils down to is everytime there is a tournament the same teams come. Most of the time visiting teams can't floor a full team so all the local's fill up the teams where it turns out that mostly locals are playing each other, looks like the IBA practice nights, no excitement at all.

Tournaments usually come at certain intervals either to kick off some league or to end a season and not just when someone feels like having a tournament. It would be more impressive if time and planning behind these tourneys would occur. To bring a good talent and have a guarantee from all the teams that they are going to make the tournament.

Take the holiday tournament which just concluded just recently. It is a annual event with good planning done before hand to get the best possible teams for the program. Good teams come from all parts of the country as it was evidenced. There were several games that went into overtime shows that there were some good games with excitement.

Another thing to consider, that might be of interest to the spectators. That is to schedule special games on Saturday nights. One game to start at 7:00 p.m. and a feature game at 8:00 p.m. Something like that would probably draw a good crowd. It would be good to see the Community center full during games.

Toe Ness

There was this girl who came up to Spilyay and said, "Say can I take your picture in the nude?" Spilyay looked at her for a while and said, "I'm sorry lady, but you'll have to wear a robe." YIKES

SS SS SS

There was this girl who was very shy. Especially when it came to telling her age, she was about ten years shy. YIKES

Appreciation for support expressed

To our people of Warm Springs and Yakima:

We, the family of Cyril Wolfe, would like to take this time to express our appreciation for all the love and concern shown during the time of son's hospitalization; gratitude especially for your prayers, and because of these, my son is at home once again regaining his health and strength and enjoying the company of his beloved daughter, whom he missed very much.

God bless all for the financial assistance that was badly needed during those four crucial months, and thank you, Tribal Council for the assistance during his last month in the hospital in Portland.

We appreciate and thank Rhonda so much, as she was right by his side during all this time and kept his spirits up.

I would also like to take advantage of this time to encourage all you young people to think about what you can do and what you should refrain from doing in order to stay strong and healthy for your family and for your own future family for whom you will be responsible. There are a lot of people out here who love you and worry about you everyday. You'll experience these same feelings when you become a parent. But for now, please think about the ones that love you and quit hurting them by indulging in all these harmful, damaging episodes you think you need or enjoy. There are more safe, permissible activities that you can take up for entertainment.

Again, thank you everyone, and I ask that you continue with all your prayers and encouragement to my son, for it will be a few months before he is completely healed again, before he can even think of any strenuous labor. We all love you, Cy!

God Bless everyone,
Beulah and Raymond
Daughter Cassandra Beulah

Thank you, Jody!

To the Editor,

Parents of students who are going to school in Chemawa would like to give a special thank you to Jody Calica, Education, for all his help and concern finding a way for the Chemawa students to come home for their vacations, and also, the trip back to school. Some parents don't have cars to go back and forth and we really appreciate this. We know Jody finds a way to help his tribal people.

Thanks!

Church to hold annual meeting

To All Presbyterians,

Sunday, January 18 will be our annual meeting. It is a time to discuss the future of our church. Worship: 11:00 a.m. Potluck following (bring a dish). Annual Meeting.

Reverend Rick R. Ribero

Adults urged to enlist in ABE

Adults of all ages who want to improve their reading, writing, and math skills can enroll in Central Oregon Community College's Adult Basic Education (ABE) program.

ABE helps approximately 1,000 students to improve basic skills, complete high school diplomas, and prepare for the GED high school equivalency test.

The ABE teachers develop an individual study plan to meet the needs of each student. Because all instruction is based on individual needs, students can enroll in the program any time during the quarter.

ABE students gain satisfaction from reaching personal goals, such as completing a high school diploma. Each student then has new life options available. A number of students have gone on to earn two-year college degrees.

Warm Springs classes are from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 3 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Mondays and Thursdays. Classes started on Monday, January 5, and will continue until March 20.

The basic skill building classes are free, adult high school diploma classes are $20, and GED classes are $10. Books for each class cost between $10 and $25.

Warm Springs classes are taught at the COCC Community Education Center at the Office of Training Services, 101 Wasco, Old Boys

Dorm. In addition, classes are taught in Bend, Redmond, Prineville, Sisters, Madras and LaPine. For more information, call Adult Basic Education at 382-6112, ext. 331, or toll-free 1-800-422-3041.

"Every imperfect soul is self-centered and thinketh only of his own good. But as his thoughts expand a little he will begin to think of the welfare and comfort of his family. If his ideas still more widen, his concern will be the felicity of his fellow citizens; and if they still widen, he will think of the glory of his land and of his race. But when ideas and views reach the utmost degree of expansion and attain the stage of perfection, then will he be interested in the exaltation of humankind. He will then be the well-wisher of all men and the seeker of the weal and prosperity of all lands. This is indicative of perfection."
